Dear Village family,

What a year 2017 has been! You will see just a few highlights shared in this Good News article. It has been a year of completion, as the June 11 dedication of the Village Church Child & Family Development Center brought to completion our vision for the Robert and Shirley Meneilly Center for Mission. I am so grateful Dr. Bob could join us for that dedication. We also brought to completion the construction made possible through the Now & Tomorrow, Village Church Campaign. This was joyfully celebrated as Dr. Elisa Bickers played an amazing inaugural recital on the Village pipe organ in August.

It has also been a year of beginnings—celebrating the ordination of young adults who have been called by God to serve the church. They heard that call through the ministry of this congregation.

We began a satellite of Village—Village on Antioch. I expect this will not only blossom into a vibrant and robust congregation engaged in care for one another and mission beyond themselves, but even beyond that, I believe we are providing a model that other congregations can adapt for their context. On Dec. 10 you voted unanimously to call the Rev. Dr. Brandon Frick as site pastor at Village on Antioch.

The national gathering for NEXT Church was held in downtown Kansas City in March 2017. It was the first time this gathering was held in Kansas City. There were approximately 600 attendees from 38 states and six countries. NEXT Church was started seven years ago by a team of pastors (myself included) to see where the Presbyterian Church (USA) is headed.

We welcomed Will Breytspraak, a child of Village, as our new director of music ministry at Village on Mission in July. Ryan Main, who served a year as our interim director of music at VOM, joined the Village staff as director of music at Village on Antioch. It has been a year of transition with some staff and some ministries. God has been very generous to us at Village Church, and you have been very faithful. I am excited to see what 2018 will mean for Village.

Shalom,

Rev. Tom Are, Jr.

How Do You Know?

Pontius Pilate asked Jesus, "What is truth?" It's an important question, but there is another question to answer first. How do you know the truth is genuinely true? How do you know that there are 300 sextillion stars in the universe or that you are made of atoms? How do you know that Columbus "discovered" America? How do you know that Jesus is Lord? How do you know that Muhammad is not? There is likely disagreement on any of these truth claims. In this series, we will consider not simply what it means to talk about the content of truth, but how we know the truth to be true.

Food Pantry

It’s 2018, and the Food Pantry and Clothes Closet cannot say goodbye to 2017 without thanking the 250 volunteers who have shown up weekly to serve — driving the trucks to pick up groceries, stocking the shelves, greeting the clients, carrying groceries, flowers, clothes and household items to clients’ cars. Thanks also go out to everyone who donated with your groceries, clothes, household items and cash. Together you all have made this a very successful mission of Village Church! During January, the Pantry is asking for one pound bags of sugar, flour and rice and small bottles of dish detergent. The Clothes Closet has a BIG need for children’s winter coats.

Four Days on the Border

This past November, Rev. Hallie Hottle led a delegation of seven Village Church young adult representatives on a four-day border ministry trip to Agua Prieta, Mexico through PCUSA’s Frontera de Cristo. Frontera de Cristo is one of six PCUSA border ministries located along the 2,000-mile U.S./Mexico border. Agua Prieta is located about 120 miles south of Tucson, Ariz., directly across the border from Douglas, Ariz.

Frontera de Cristo’s border ministry and immersion trips allow faith- and non-faith based groups to gain a greater understanding of border realities, learn about the phenomena of migration and form connections and relationships with our brothers and sisters on both sides of the border. Faith-based groups reflect biblically and theologically on what it means to be disciples of Jesus Christ when borders divide.

Rev. Mark Adams and his wife Miriam Maldonado Escobar, mission co-workers with the Presbyterian Border Ministry, hosted the Village delegation, introducing them to a handful of the Frontera de Cristo’s ministries. According to Rev. Hottle, “Over the course of four days, I believe that each and every one of our delegation members’ lives were forever changed by this experience.”

If you are interested in joining or forming your own delegation of Village members for a border immersion trip through Frontera de Cristo, contact Lora Garrison, director of international mission, at lora.garrison@villagepres.org or 913-671-2390. Cost of a four-day all-inclusive trip (including airfare) is approximately $500. For more information, visit www.villagepres.org/border.
“As we hike north through the Mexican Sonoran Desert, we see footprints, empty water bottles, cans of food, torn clothing, one glove, a broken doll. The desert is strewn with reminders. Reminders of pain and suffering, political corruption and oppression, fear, desperation and the inexplicable love a parent has for their child. Finally, we reach the wall. It is hard to describe the feeling of peering into your homeland between three-inch gaps of solid metal. Suddenly, and deeply, I begin to miss my kids and I realize how lucky I am to have been born in the United States.”

–VPC delegation member

Generosity and faith are everywhere. The delegation enjoys lunch at the home of a family living in Agua Prieta.

Meet 90-Year-Old Village Volunteer Rosella Hogland

Rosella Hogland has been volunteering at the Village Food Pantry since 2000. For the past 15 years, she spends part of her volunteer days at the Pantry and then comes across the parking lot to help out at the Village Church Child & Family Development Center. Rosella joined Village Church in 1956. She retired from being a bank trust officer at Mission Bank in 2000 at age 73. Rosella lives alone. Her husband passed away in 1988. “When I retired, I decided I needed something to do besides going to have coffee and clean the house. I made it a job looking for volunteer work. I knew I didn’t want to do hospital work. I spent too much time there with my husband’s illness. I was a deacon about that time and some of the people I met there were already volunteering at the Pantry. They really sold me on the idea of volunteering at the Pantry. It has been probably the best decision I have made. I have thoroughly enjoyed it.”

“I started out doing two days a week – Tuesdays and Wednesdays. They soon tagged me for the desk job. I did the desk on Tuesday and did the floor on Wednesday. After we moved into the new building, and a few years had gone by, my legs just could not tolerate being on the floor all day. So I stepped back. I still go in and volunteer on Wednesday at the desk. In 2002, I started going over to the day care center two days a week.”

Rosella still drives, even going as far as Topeka to see family. Food Pantry Director Susan Webb and VCCFDC Director Rosemary Marshall appreciate Rosella for many reasons, especially for being a stickler for figures and precision. “I started charting the attendance at the day care center. You have to chart every child every hour of the day so the state can come in and look at your records and know that you had sufficient teachers in that classroom according to the number of students. I was also a stickler about parents signing their kids in and out—especially signing out. I figured out a way to find out how well the teachers were doing their job on that by figuring out the percentage of people who sign out every day and I keep a running record of it. Now I’ve got the teachers at 100 percent participation. Some of the parents don’t sign their name like they should, but I’ve gotten used to the squiggles.”

“I’m also balancing their books at the end of the month. I don’t use a calculator. I keep telling Rosemary, if you see me starting to make mistakes, it’s time to stay home.”

Rosella encourages others to consider becoming a volunteer. “When you’ve had a busy life working and all of a sudden you’re retired, it keeps some meaning in your life and you’re contributing. I’ve made so many new friends I didn’t know before I worked there. The work itself is very fulfilling. For me, it was something that was worthwhile that I could put my time into and it kept me sharp. But you get the satisfaction of knowing that you’re helping somebody else out and these jobs need to be done. The extra new friends you make at that time of your life are really important. And so, this is making a whole new circle, a whole new world, and I really enjoy that.”

Village depends on volunteers for so many of its missions and ministries. In next month’s Good News, Dr. Rodger Nishioka will tell us where we have need for volunteers in 2018.

Sponsored by Presbyterian Women of Village Presbyterian Church

The purpose of Presbyterian Women is to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study, to support the mission of the church worldwide, to work for justice and peace, and to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and witnesses to the promise of God’s kingdom.
Rev. Dr. Serene Jones

Born in Oklahoma, first daughter of a psychotherapist mother and seminarian father, educated at University of Oklahoma and Yale, ordained in both the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and the United Church of Christ, Dr. Serene Jones has been a leader in integrating religious studies with critical social issues: women’s studies, gender and sexuality issues, globalization, democracy itself.

Dr. Jones is the first woman president of the 179-year-old Union Theological Seminary in New York City, the pre-eminent non-denominational seminary in the US. As our 2018 Visiting Scholar, on March 2 and 3, Dr. Jones will address the topic, “What is True: Theology and the American Story.” She challenges us to consider courageously who we are, as a country, and what are our deeply-held, moral convictions.
