SERVICE OF WORSHIP

November 8, 2015 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

There is a popular song that asks, "If God had a name, what would it be? If God had a face, what would it look like? What if God was one of us? Just a stranger on a bus, trying to make his way home." The good news is that God did become one with us. As we continue our conversation about the generosity of God's Word to us, we now encounter God's Word as the very act of God. Incarnation is usually thought of as a baby lying in a manger. But the full revelation of God's love is not only found at the foot of a feeding trough, but also at the foot of the cross. God's living Word is revealed to us in the full act of Jesus Christ's life, death and resurrection.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Call to Worship

Rev. Jenny McDevitt

Jesus proclaims the reign of God.

Jesus says, "For God so loved the world, God gave an only Son..."

Preaching good news to the poor, and release to the captives,

Jesus says, "You are the salt of the earth, and the light of the world."

Healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted,

Jesus says, "Your faith has made you well; go in peace."

Eating with outcasts, and forgiving sinners,

Jesus says, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost."

Delivering us from death to eternal life,

Jesus says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life."

*Prayer of Confession and Assurance of God's Grace

Have mercy on me, O God.

I come to you as a person hungry for good news.

I seek your truth, and often deceive others and myself.

I beg for forgiveness, and still repeat my errors.

I experience your grace, then act defeated.

I long for a heart to love you, and turn away from the ways you love me.

Forgive me for the smallness of my faith, and for the many ways I fall short.

Jesus Christ, fully divine, is the way of hope and the truth of God.

Jesus Christ, fully human, is the life of love and the mercy of God.

God's humanity is God's divinity.

We declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Thanks be to God.

Have mercy on us, O God.

We come to you as people hungry for good news.

We seek your truth, and often deceive others and ourselves.

We beg for forgiveness, and still repeat our errors.

We experience your grace, then act defeated.

We long for a heart to love you, and turn away from the ways you love us.

Forgive us for the smallness of our faith, and for the many ways we fall short.

Jesus Christ, fully divine, is the way of hope and the truth of God.

Jesus Christ, fully human, is the life of love and the mercy of God.

God's humanity is God's divinity.

I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of November 9, 2015)

The following are daily Bible readings offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, Nov. 9

Psalm 135

From its first word to its last, this psalm is one of praise. It tells the story of God's faithfulness beginning with creation up until, it seems, the moment the psalmist puts pen to paper (or ink to scroll). God's faithfulness endures, we are meant to understand; so, too, should our praise. Looking back over your life — even just in the past week! — what reasons do you have to praise God? It is always a good time to tell the story of our gratitude.

Tuesday, Nov. 10

Psalm 86

This psalm has a different tone. It is a prayer in a time of need. The psalmist begs God for help... but even that is a word of praise and faithfulness. Help me, the psalm declares; the request for help comes knowing that the God who hears, will respond. God's faithfulness is sure, on our best days and on our worst. When have you seen this in your life?

Wednesday, Nov. 11

Matthew 15:21-28

The Canaanite woman's story is a complex one. Jesus speaks harshly and, it seems, unkindly to her. Yet she is filled with the same kind of faith as the psalmist. She trusts that Jesus will act as she knows the Son of God should act... and with her faithful insistence, he does. Have you ever demanded that God keep God's promises?

Thursday, Nov. 12

Matthew 15:32-39

Yesterday, the Canaanite woman eats crumbs; today, thousands eat abundantly. This is perhaps one of the best known miracle stories, and for good reason. When we think we are operating from a place of scarcity, Jesus shows up with abundance. In what ways might this story inspire you to live more boldly and courageously?

Friday, Nov. 13

Matthew 16:13-20

"Who do you say that I am?" Jesus asks this question of his disciples. They can recite what others have to say about him, but then the Son of God twists the question in a personal way. How would you answer? Who do you say that Jesus is?

Saturday, Nov. 14

Psalm 136

This psalm has one central message — God's steadfast love endures forever. Twenty-six times in twenty-six verses, this line rings out to the rafters, noting both victorious days and defeated days. Give thanks to the God of heaven; God's steadfast love endures forever. Consider writing your own Psalm 136. What would you include?

NEW SERMON SERIES

The Giver That Keeps On Giving

One way to speak of God's relationship with the world is to note that every interaction God has is an act of generosity. The Apostle Paul writes, "I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus." He writes this to the Corinthians, but he could have written it to us. But Jesus is not the only gift of God's grace. So is God's work of creation itself. Even the law as well as the prophets are expressions of God's generosity. This sermon series will focus on God as The Giver That Keeps on Giving.
