SERVICE OF WORSHIP

March 5, 2017 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Lent is a season of reflection, of prayer and of discipleship. Following Jesus is difficult. It is even more difficult to try to do alone; actually, it's impossible to follow Jesus alone. So, during this series we will pay attention to some of the people Jesus was with as he journeyed toward the cross. In doing so, we will learn a bit about ourselves; we will learn that in the journey of faith, we are not alone.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

All who hunger, gather around.

There is bread here, for empty bellies.

There is compassion here, for broken hearts.

There is grace here, for shattered lives.

There is family here, for lonely souls.

There is hope here, for justice seekers.

All who hunger, gather around and lift your hearts to God.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.

You teach us to share what we have and play well with others,

but we clench our fists and keep to ourselves.

You teach us to trust you and follow where you go,

but the path is difficult and we doubt your way.

We did not set out to live like this, but here we are,

made up of empty intentions, wounded hearts and misguided ambitions.

Remind us, O God,

that you are made up of holy wisdom, second chances and boundless love.

Wrap us up in your grace and teach us, again,

to walk in your ways. (Silent prayer)

WORSHIP NOTES

Occasional Reflections on the Elements of Worship

These reflections are written by Village's staff, and it is our hope that knowing a bit more about some of the individual components of the church service may help us to experience more fully the gifts of this time together.

Communion

written by Dr. Rodger Nishioka

Communion, or the Lord's Supper, is one of two sacraments in the Presbyterian Church. The other sacrament is baptism. A sacrament is a communal ritual that comes directly from the life of Jesus Christ. It is an outward sign of God's inward grace. According to the gospels, after the Passover meal and on the night he would be arrested, Jesus was with his disciples and he shared some bread and wine with them. The Apostle Paul provided further instructions about this meal in 1 Corinthians 11:23, so we know the early churches did this same thing. We use the same language (the body of Christ, the blood of Christ) as Jesus. In Luke's gospel, Jesus also called the cup the "new covenant," which you will sometimes hear spoken as well. The Lord's Supper, or Communion (Latin for "sharing in common"), or Eucharist (Greek for "thanksgiving"), is always shared in community as Jesus did with his disciples. This is a personal act but not a private one. It is an act of remembering Jesus' life and sacrifice, so usually after participating in the Lord's Supper many will be quiet and pray. But there are also times when it is truly a joyful celebration because we are giving thanks for God's grace shown to us in Jesus and his resurrection which triumphed over death. Whether a remembrance or a celebration or both, Jesus told us "do this remembering me" and so we come to the Lord's table where all are welcome and all are fed and sustained for the journey of faithfulness!

Today's prelude is a meandering meditation on the familiar hymn "Be Thou My Vision." The hymn's text proclaims a tall order: "Thou my best thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, thy presence my light." As we journey through Lent, may our prayer be that our generous Lord guide our steps thoughtfully, and make safe our path through God's unique wisdom. The postlude is a rousing piece with seven beats per measure. This stands in contrast to more "regular" musical meters, such as those with three or four beats per measure. Seven beats may leave us feeling unbalanced and a bit frantic (read: life is often like that). At the same time, the piece delivers a joyous excitement that hopefully can propel us into the week with energy and enthusiasm.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of March 6, 2017)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Zach Walker and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, March 6

Genesis 2:15-17, 3:1-7

This might seem an odd text for the Lenten season, but it reminds us of the need for Christ. We are so often tempted to save ourselves, yet in doing so we separate ourselves from the God who created us and who has made us in God's own image.

Tuesday, March 7

Matthew 4:1-11

There is a sense in which these verses pair with the verses from yesterday. Yesterday we saw Adam and Eve in the garden — its own kind of wilderness — and choosing to listen to the voice of temptation. Today we see Jesus called into the wilderness, choosing to rely on God and God's promises. What voice do you listen to when you are tempted this week?

Wednesday, March 8

Psalms 51:1-17

Can we ever read/pray the Psalms enough? In this season of Lent, read these verses as a prayer from you to God. How is your spirit broken and offered to God as the psalmist suggests?

Thursday, March 9

Romans 10:8b-13

Here Paul writes there is no distinction between Jew and Greek. It is a way of saying that we are united together rather than, as we so often insist, divided. No doubt Paul felt the recipients of this letter were quick to decide who was "us" and who was "them." Where in your own life are you quick to divide rather than embrace your own?

Friday, March 10

Isaiah 43:16-21

God is about new things; Easter is a good time to reflect on how God is at work in your own life, creating hope and renewal in the midst of a broken world. However, sometimes we must pay attention in order to see it.

Saturday, March 11

Luke 9:28-36

Tomorrow we will hear a different story about James and John; this story reminds us that they are mentioned together at other times. In particular, it shows us how close they were with Jesus. They witnessed amazing things. Yet, they still miss the point. It serves to remind and warn us, that although we might feel we are walking closely with Jesus, we are still prone to missing the point.

Liturgical Art

During the season of Lent, the Welcome Center features The Stations of the Cross, an art installation created by Virginia Maksymowicz. The installation was originally commissioned by St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Lancaster, Pa. It has been on display at Allegheny College, the Narthex Gallery, the National Museum of Catholic Art and History, the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral, and the Memorial Hall at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. This is the first exhibition of the pieces in the Midwest.

In the creation of these pieces, 11 individuals served as models, spanning a wide variety of ages and ethnicities, demonstrating the tension between the “specific” and the “universal” messages of those within the story.

A devotional guide to the installation, which also contains additional information about the artistic process, is available in the Welcome Center.

Creative Spaces

Throughout the past year, we have explored different possibilities for artistic expression in our worship spaces and in the Welcome Center. More hands, hearts and minds are welcome to contribute to this process. If you have a creative streak, or would like to develop one, join us. Contact Rev. Jenny McDevitt at jenny.mcdevitt@villagepres.org.

LENTEN SERMON SERIES

The People You Meet Along the Way

Jesus journeyed to Jerusalem. It was a journey on foot and a journey of the heart. A cross awaited him. When you know the end is near your time is precious and you pay attention to the people around you. Jesus spoke with his followers and with a rich man. He noticed children and an impoverished woman. Jesus paid attention to them all. We will pay attention to them as well, and discover that there is a little bit of all of them in us. I suppose that means we are on the journey as well, at least the journey of the heart.
