SERVICE OF WORSHIP

March 19, 2017 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

All of us get weary and tired at times, and Jesus was no different. So he tries to take a break from his ministry of teaching and healing only to be accosted by a woman who is desperately seeking healing for her daughter. When Jesus refuses — explaining that he was sent by God only to minister to God's chosen people — the woman's passionate and courageous response seems to startle, convict and even change him. Can it be that Jesus is schooled by a Gentile woman? The result is that a daughter is healed and Jesus' view of his own ministry grows.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Soliloquy
by David Conte

Call to Worship

Rev. Jenny McDevitt

Holy, holy, holy. You are the Lord God almighty.

So we gather this morning in your sanctuary to worship you.

And we lift up songs of praise to you for only you are holy.

And we join with all the saints of every time and place who adore you.

You are merciful and mighty, O God. There is no other God but you.

All of creation in heaven and earth praises you and falls down before you.

Holy, holy, holy. You are the Lord God almighty.

You, blessed Trinity, who was and is and evermore shall be.

*Hymn, No. 1

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
NICAEA

*Prayer of Confession

We believe that you are just and merciful, O God.

So in your presence and before one another, we confess our failure to be what you created us to be.

We confess that while you created us good and beautiful and faithful, we all too easily stray from your ways.

We neglect to hear and act upon your call to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. We are too quick to set limits on your love. We are too quick to turn to fear instead of hope, and despair instead of joy.

We confess that we rely more on ourselves than upon your Holy Spirit.

We confess that we too easily participate in systems and structures of sin and injustice.

Forgive us, O God, and send us children and women and men to show us how to live more faithfully into your calling even as we pause to silently confess our own sins to you. (Silent prayer)

WORSHIP NOTES

Occasional Reflections on the Elements of Worship

These reflections are written by Village's staff, and it is our hope that knowing a bit more about some of the individual components of the church service may help us to experience more fully the gifts of this time together.

Baptism

written by Dr. Rodger Nishioka

Baptism is one of two sacraments in the Presbyterian Church. The other sacrament is the Lord's Supper. A sacrament is a communal ritual that comes directly from the life of Jesus Christ. It is an outward sign of God's inward grace. According to the gospels, at the beginning of his public ministry, Jesus was baptized in the river Jordan; and the Holy Spirit descended upon him; and God claimed Jesus as his son. Today, baptism is a public moment when we recognize that God has claimed the individual as God's own. This is God's doing and not the decision of the individual or, in the case of a child, her or his parents. We are glad to baptize anyone, but we most often baptize infants because this reminds us that belonging to God is not about our choosing or even our comprehending — it is first and foremost a sign of God's grace. The water is a symbol; any amount of water, from a sprinkling to full immersion, is representative of that grace. And we baptize in the "name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit" because that is what Jesus commanded in Matthew 28:19. That phrase is the most common phrase spoken today among all Christians in many languages throughout the world. Welcoming any new member to the family is cause for great celebration, so rejoice and be glad whether our new member is 7 months, 7 years, 17 years, 27 years or 70 years-old! We have a new family member in Jesus Christ!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of March 20, 2017)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Dr. Ron Patton and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, March 20

Genesis 28:10-22

Jacob's Ladder has been used as a mantra of Judeo/Christian groups for centuries. However, the image of a ladder connecting heaven and earth appears nowhere else in the Old Testament. Likely, this imagery was imported from Babylonian and Egyptian religious symbolism. In Genesis, it becomes a way to validate an ancient Canaanite sanctuary as a Hebrew place of worship. "Bethel" can be translated as "a house of God."

Tuesday, March 21

Psalms 69

21st century Christians can find many points in this Psalm that are parallel to their lives, such as feeling that they are about to drown, being up to their necks in their troubles. It seems that even those inside their own communities — families — are "ganging up" on them. There is a brief call for revenge against the oppressors. The Psalm ends with praise for a God who cares for even the distressed and an invitation for all the world to join in this praise.

Wednesday, March 22

1 Corinthians 9:1-2, 15-23

What is required to preach the Gospel? For Paul, it was not a matter of traveling in the familiar circles of his dual citizenship — a Jew and a Roman. He could have even rested on his work as the founder of the Corinthian church. Yet, Paul was willing to do whatever it took to preach the Gospel. Paul sets the standard for the church spreading the good news of Jesus Christ to all the corners of the world.

Thursday, March 23

Mark 10:17-31

Did the "rich young man" who came to Jesus already know the answer to the question he asked? Was he seeking to remove guilt over having wealth and not being willing to share it with those less fortunate? Whatever the reason, Jesus says it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for the selfish to share. And as for the obtaining of salvation, Jesus is clear that it is God's job. (See Rev. Tom Are's sermon of 03-12-17)

Friday, March 24

Matthew 27:33-44

One of the best known passages in the Gospels, each person can imagine the scene of Jesus crucified — whether within their individual imagination or inspired by the many still and motion pictures. As the passage is read, there are several important aspects: Jesus did not want to die from poison on a sponge. The soldiers held no reverence for Jesus' clothes. The crowd, or mob, sounds like a typical unruly mob. And, the religious leaders challenge Jesus saying that they would believe he is the Messiah if he came down from the cross. Would they really?

Saturday, March 25

Matthew 27:45-50

It was not a "peaceful" death. Matthew says that Jesus even thought, or at least expressed, in those last moments, questions about whether God the Creator has forsaken him. Jesus was truly human, just as all who read this are truly human. Jesus died! It was not an illusion or a trick of a magician. To be born is to die. But, Easter is coming!

LENTEN SERMON SERIES

The People You Meet Along the Way

Jesus journeyed to Jerusalem. It was a journey on foot and a journey of the heart. A cross awaited him. When you know the end is near your time is precious and you pay attention to the people around you. Jesus spoke with his followers and with a rich man. He noticed children and an impoverished woman. Jesus paid attention to them all. We will pay attention to them as well, and discover that there is a little bit of all of them in us. I suppose that means we are on the journey as well, at least the journey of the heart.
