

VILLAGE CHURCH

Presbyterian (USA)

Service of Worship

April 3, 2022 | 9 and 11 a.m.

About Today's Service

We welcome to the pulpit Rev. Jimmie Hawkins as our guest preacher. In the Gospel reading today, Jesus is a few days away from his arrest, torture, and crucifixion. Mary, a friend of Jesus, anoints his feet with precious oil. One of the disciples, Judas, complains about how Mary wasted the expensive perfume and says the money could have been given to the poor, but Jesus tells him, "You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me." Rev. Hawkins will help us understand what Jesus meant by this and what it means for us today.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Listen! God is Calling!
by Ann Krentz Music; Dr. Elisa Bickers, organ

Words of Welcome

Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka

Call to Worship

God is our refuge and our strength, our ever-present help in times of trouble.

Though the earth trembles, and mountains slide into the sea, we have no fear.

Waters foam and roar, and mountains shake at their surging;

but the God of hosts is with us—our stronghold, the God of Israel.

There is a river whose streams give joy to the city of God,

the holy dwelling of the Most High.

God is in the midst of the city; it stands firm. God will aid it at the break of day.

Even if nations are in chaos, and kingdoms fall, God's voice resounds;

the earth melts away.

God is with us; the God of Israel is our stronghold.

Come! See the deeds of the Most High, the marvelous things God has done on earth;

All over the world, God has stopped wars—breaking bows, splintering spears, burning the shields with fire.

"Be still! And know that I am God, exalted among the nations, exalted upon the earth." (Psalm 46)

The Church of Christ in Every Age

*Prayer of Confession

O Lord our God,

you call us to work for a world

where all will be fed and have dignity,

but we find ourselves distracted by our own desires.

You call us to seek justice and peace,

but we are satisfied with injustice and war.

You call us to bring liberty to the oppressed,

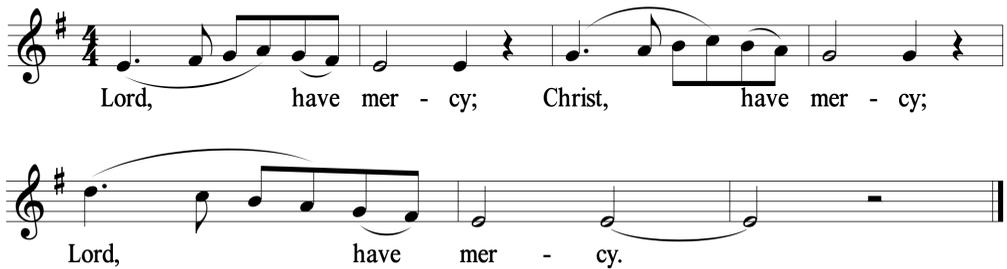

but we do not insist on freedom for all.

Forgive us, O Lord.

Turn us to your will by the power of your Spirit,

so that all may know your justice, righteousness, and peace;

through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Savior. (Silent prayer)

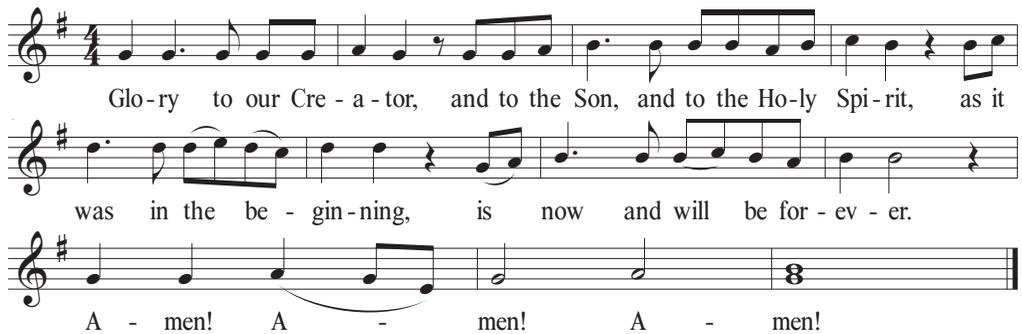

Lord, have mer - cy; Christ, have mer - cy;

Lord, have mer - cy.

About Today's Guest Preacher

Rev. Jimmie Hawkins is the director of the Presbyterian Church's Office of Public Witness in Washington, D.C. He is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary in Atlanta and the Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond, Virginia. He has served churches in Virginia and North Carolina and was called to serve the national church in 2016. He is a longtime friend of Rev. Tom Are and Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka. His visit to Village is sponsored by the Social Justice Ministry and made possible by a generous gift from the Endowment Trust.

Heads, Faces & Spiritual Encounter

Make sure to visit the Mission Campus Welcome Center and Bridge to experience this national traveling art exhibit, made available through Christians in the Visual Arts (CIVA). This exhibit, of more than 40 works, offers a glance at the many facets and mysteries of the human face. It will be on display through April 28. Find more information about the exhibit at villagepres.org/headsfaces.

Werner Drewes (1899-1984) fled Germany in the 1930 to escape Nazi censorship. He arrived in New York City with his wife and two children along with a commitment to abstract art learned from the Bauhaus group. "Hungry" (1971) reveals his fusion of abstraction with a stark realism, depicting the desperation of a mother through her deep set and penetrating eyes. The sharp, parallel lines contribute to the print's power, voiding it of any sentimentality. The final woodcut resides at the Smithsonian American Art Museum.

SERMON SERIES

Life in The Wilderness

Three decades after the ministry of Jesus, life was chaotic for Christians in the Roman empire. Christians became scapegoats for the disastrous fire that destroyed much of Rome, and as a result were rounded up and put to death by the most horrific means. A Jewish revolt was put down by the Roman Army, leaving the temple in Jerusalem destroyed again. During this tumultuous time, someone we call Mark wrote the first Gospel. He tells the story that changes the world. In this series we will travel with Mark from the beginning to the resurrection. Life 2,000 years after Jesus remains chaotic, but perhaps this story will change us. Mark bears witness that there can be abundant life even in the wilderness.
