Service of Worship

About Today's Service

God speaks through Isaiah the familiar words: "I am about to do a new thing—now it springs forth!" God then follows these words of hope and new life with the question: "Do you not perceive it?" Indeed God knows that our perception is not always clear and sharp. Sometimes in life, we see God's work only in hindsight. But all around us, we have evidence that God is continually at work. We may not always perceive it, but we can trust it.

Call to Worship

Rev. Sally S. Wright

Our God is clothed with honor and majesty, wrapped in light as with a garment.

Bountiful and wise are the works of our Creator!

Full is the earth of God's creations!

When you open your hand,
we are filled with good and wonderful life.

When you send forth your spirit,
it renews the face of the ground.

We rejoice in your works, God of glory.

Your love endures forever in this creation.

As long as we live, we shall sing to our God, source of everlasting blessings! (Psalm 104)

*Hymn, No. 14

For the Beauty of the Earth

*Prayer of Confession

God of resurrection and new life, you created us in your image
to care for one another and for all creation.
And yet, our thoughts and actions are not always reflective of you.
Forgive us for turning away from you,
for ignoring the needs of our neighbors and the cries of your world.

As the sun brings light and warmth to the earth,
help us to perceive your presence and the new life you offer to us.
Make us signs of your grace,
and proclaimers of good news,
through Christ, our light and life, we pray. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

Call for the Offering

Offertory Anthem

Easter Anthem
by William Billings; Village Choir

*The Lord is ris'n indeed, Hallelujah.
Now is Christ risen from the dead,
and become the first fruits of them that slept.
Hallelujah.
And did He rise?
Hear, O ye nations, hear it, O ye dead.
He rose, He burst the bars of death,
He burst the bars of death and triumph'd o'er the grave.*

*Then I rose,
then first humanity triumphant passed the crystal ports of light,
and seiz'd eternal youth.
Man, all immortal hail, hail,
Heaven, all lavish of strange gifts to man,
Thine's all the glory, man's the boundless bliss.*

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Children's Musical "The Tale of the Three Trees" - Today at 10:15 a.m.

Between the 9 & 11 a.m. services today in the Mission Campus Sanctuary. This is a beautiful story of three trees that have ambitions of fame and glory. They learn that even though life doesn't turn out exactly as they hoped, their new paths bring them to places in history even grander than they could ever imagine.

Heads, Faces & Spiritual Encounter

Time is running out to visit the Mission Campus Welcome Center & Bridge to experience this national traveling art exhibit, made available through Christians in the Visual Arts (CIVA). Learn more at villagepres.org/headsfaces. The exhibit will be on display through April 28.

Twelve faces of Christ are displayed for our meditation, several of which evoke the Veil of Veronica legend symbolized in the Sixth Station of the Cross. On the Via Dolorosa, Christ stumbles. Veronica wipes the blood and sweat from his brow with her veil; his visage is miraculously imprinted on the cloth. This iconic visage of Christ is one of the most important themes in the history of Western art. Katherine Brinberry (b. 1947) has used a real cloth in her modern execution. Christ's eyes are closed, allowing the viewer to imagine a wide range of emotions – both his and ours (as modern Veronicas).

UPCOMING SERMON SERIES

April 24 From Waste to Gold – Rev. Melanie Hardison
May 1 Open-Eyed, Wide-Eyed Christianity – Rev. Sally S. Wright

I Have a Question...

Life raises questions. Sometimes it raises questions that require a response from our faith. The teaching of the faith raises questions as well. Sometimes it requires that we ponder how the faith relates to the demands of ordinary life. Each Sunday, we bring such questions to worship. Each Sunday from May 8-July 10, the sermons will speak to many of the questions you have raised. Does prayer work? Can we love our enemies? Why do bad things happen to good people? How do we deal with all the divisions in our world? It is hoped that these messages will spur your own thinking about how you respond to questions such as these.
