The Village Church Endowment Trust is grateful for our Meneilly Society members.

We have made every effort to accurately list the members of the Village Church Endowment Trust Meneilly Society, but we apologize for any errors and omissions. To report a correction or omission, contact Bob Sperry at 913-671-2325.
Dear Village Family,

When I was in seminary I read a theologian named Reinhold Niebuhr. He once said, “Nothing that is worth doing can be achieved in our lifetime, therefore, we must be saved by hope.” This, I dare say, is the truth. Much that is worth doing can only be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture. And yet, the wisdom of Niebuhr’s teaching is that much that matters requires not only that it be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture.

The ministry of Village has a rich history. Village also has a meaningful future, because we remain committed to things that matter: kindness, justice, compassion, all practices of living toward God’s promised day. The Endowment Trust is a tool that does not only that it can not only be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture.

When I was in seminary I read a theologian named Reinhold Niebuhr. He once said, “Nothing that is worth doing can be achieved in our lifetime, therefore, we must be saved by hope.” This, I dare say, is the truth. Much that is worth doing can only be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture. And yet, the wisdom of Niebuhr’s teaching is that much that matters requires not only that it be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture.

The ministry of Village has a rich history. Village also has a meaningful future, because we remain committed to things that matter: kindness, justice, compassion, all practices of living toward God’s promised day. The Endowment Trust is a tool that does not only that it can not only be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture.

When I was in seminary I read a theologian named Reinhold Niebuhr. He once said, “Nothing that is worth doing can be achieved in our lifetime, therefore, we must be saved by hope.” This, I dare say, is the truth. Much that is worth doing can only be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture. And yet, the wisdom of Niebuhr’s teaching is that much that matters requires not only that it be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture.

The ministry of Village has a rich history. Village also has a meaningful future, because we remain committed to things that matter: kindness, justice, compassion, all practices of living toward God’s promised day. The Endowment Trust is a tool that does not only that it can not only be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture. And yet, the wisdom of Niebuhr’s teaching is that much that matters requires not only that it be accomplished in a lifetime, but sometimes in a single gesture.