SERVICE OF WORSHIP

March 25, 2018 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

This is the week when we remember how God changed the world. There was a parade. There was a quiet meal of bread and wine. There was a public execution. And then God did what God does best: God loved the world. God loves the world so completely that not even the power of hell could keep God away. So, sing hosanna today. Your King and Savior has come.

and they carried hope in their hearts.

The king was coming.

He is our king.

He is our life.

He is our God.

Like his followers in that first parade of palms,

we too sing praise to the one who saves us. Hosanna in the highest!

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Hymn, No. 215

What Wondrous Love Is This
WONDROUS LOVE

Offertory

Ride On
by Grayston Ives; Village Choir

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Hark, all the tribes hosanna cry,
Thy humble beast pursues his road with palms and scattered garments strowed.
In lowly pomp ride on to die, O Christ thy triumph now begin o'er captive death and conquered sin.
The winged squadrons of the sky look down with sad and wond'ring eyes to see the approaching sacrifice.
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh; our God sits on a sapphire throne awaiting the anointed Son.
In lowly pomp ride on to die; bow thy meek head to mortal pain,
Then take, O God, thy power, and reign.

*Response

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Christ, all people here below;
praise Holy Spirit evermore; praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication

*Hymn, No. 209 (v. 1-4)

LOVE UNKNOWN

*Benediction

*Benediction Response

Here might I stay and sing, no story so divine:
never was love, dear King, never was grief like thine.
This is my Friend, in whose sweet praise I all my days could gladly spend.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of March 26, 2018)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Hallie Hottle and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, March 26

Mark 11:7-11

Parading God, did you rejoice when you heard those hosannas? Or did it hurt your heart to know what your followers would experience in the days that were to come? We pray, in your vastness, that you rejoice when your followers sing your praise, and that you grieve when darkness befalls us. Let us walk with you in all the paradoxes of this week. Amen.

Tuesday, March 27

Mark 11:15-19

Cleansing God, what was it that caused you to reach for the tables, now? You had been here, in your temple before. Now, with the cross looming, you sought to make things right by making things messy. God, cleanse us of all the things that are no longer serving you or us in these days. Make a mess if you must, and make us holy. Amen.

Wednesday, March 28

Mark 12:41-44

Giving God, again in the temple you paused. What was it about this poor widow that caught your attention? Help us to know, so we might do the same. Amen.

Thursday, March 29

Mark 14:17-22

Feeding God, none of this night makes sense. You knew what was coming. You saw your betrayer. But there you sat, and ate, and instructed your beloved - not in safety and strategy - but in shared bread and cup. None of this night makes sense, and it is to this night you lead us. It is in this story you feed us. When all the world is upside down, when all the darkness comes near, help us to find ourselves at your table, again and again. Amen.

Friday, March 30

Mark 15:1-41

Hurting God, it's hard to read this story without wanting to turn away. It hurts, God. Might this be how you feel when we're hurting, too? Help us to linger here, not for the sake of the pain, but for the practice of knowing that you turn away from nothing in order to be near us. Amen.

Saturday, March 31

Mark 15:42-47

Distant God, resurrection is not yet, and death has already come. There is this day here, this moment of wonder and waiting in the midst of darkness and distance. This day is too familiar for us, God, whose souls have offered cries that feel unanswered in dark days. Where did you go? What did you experience in order to never be distant again? Enter into the darkness of this day with us, that we learn to find you in any darkness we might encounter, trusting that you are never again far away. Amen.

LENTEN SERMON SERIES

When Things Have Gone Wrong

The season of Lent is a slow walk to the cross. On one hand, the cross is shocking. On the other hand, it is expected. Things go wrong in everyone's life. Life is not fair. No one escapes suffering. Power is often used in abusive fashion. The passion of Christ did not eliminate the brokenness in our world, but he did battle it every day. He showed us the healing difference that love can make in a world that always knows pain and disappointment. The life of Christ is not simplistic or Pollyanna, but it is hope when things have gone wrong.
