

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

July 21, 2019 • 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

We don't know much about Cain except that he went to church with his brother, Abel, and that's when things fell apart. It seems that God did not get what he wanted from Cain; but in reality, it is more likely Cain did not get what he wanted from God.

Call to Worship

Rev. Sally Wright

Lord God, when we are weak,

be our strength.

When we are weary,

renew our spirits.

When we are broken,

gently mend us.

When we are afraid,

comfort us.

When we are sinful,

redeem us.

You alone are our God.

*Hymn, No. 353

My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less

SOLID ROCK

*Prayer of Confession

Lord God, in the world of our living,

our story seems to repeat itself:

brothers battle, families are fragile,

we settle for getting through the week.

It is hard to think of a new way.

Forgive our lackluster faith and our dull imagining.

Give us grace that we might imagine what You already know to be true;

and lead us in the ways of Your truth. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

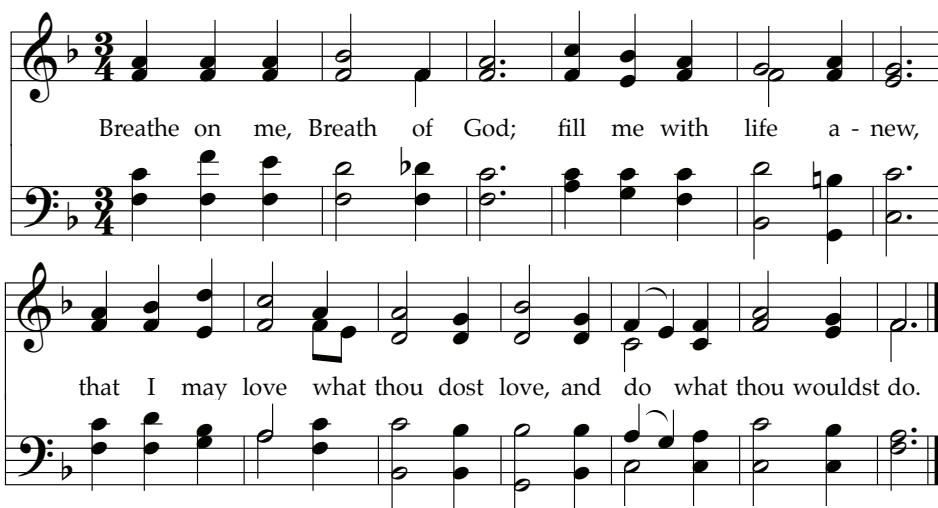

Halle, halle, halle-lu-jah!
Halle, halle, halle-lu-jah!
Halle, halle, halle-lu-jah! Hallelujah! Hal-le-lu-jah!

Call to Prayer

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Breathe on me, Breath of God; fill me with life a - new,
that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of July 22, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Zach Walker and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Amos 8:1-12

These verses sound bleak to our modern ears: words from a God who is frustrated with an unfaithful people. A prophet's message is rarely easy, and Amos voices the pain of a people and culture who have turned their backs on God. But these verses also remind us that our God is not an unfeeling God. We have the capability to let God down and our actions have meaning.

Tuesday, July 23

Genesis 18:1-10

Here we find Abram's response to strangers at his door. We all cross paths with strangers in the course of our days and weeks. What is our response to them? Do we look for the presence of God's Spirit in them? And do we treat them accordingly? How might you demonstrate your own faithfulness to a stranger in the coming week?

Wednesday, July 24

Colossians 1:15-28

In these verses Paul speaks of who Christ is and of the relationship we have with and through Christ. When you read these verses, how might God be calling you to demonstrate the love of Christ to someone today?

Thursday, July 25

Psalms 15

This psalm begins with a question: who may abide in your tent, O Lord? It answers the question with a list, and it does us good to pause and consider that list. It is tempting to see others as violating the list, but we are by no means blameless. What might it look like to confess where we fall short, and then be open to grace and mercy? Our desire (and God's) is that we would abide in that tent.

Friday, July 26

Luke 10:38-42

Mary and Martha. We are often tempted to scold Martha in our own mind, but I empathize with her. She is doing her job and is aimed at being productive, yet she is the one Jesus chastises in the story. It is a constant reminder of how easy it can be to lose perspective on what is important in life. It is so easy, in fact, that we can be convinced that we are doing a good thing and still be off the mark.

Saturday, July 27

Galatians 5:1

Christ has set you free but our temptation is to be in slavery to something or someone else. What is tempting you in your life? What would it take to help remind you that Christ came to set you free?

Friendship Hall - Village on Mission

Village Welcomes Bob Sperry as Interim Director of Finance

Village Church member Bob Sperry will serve as part-time interim director of finance after Kathy's last day on July 26. Bob has been coming to Village since he was five years old when his parents joined the church. He spent 39 years in banking before his retirement in 2008, and has served the church in a variety of ways.

"I've been on about every building committee that Village had from the year 2000 on," said Bob. "I've been in the choir for 43 years. I run the sound booth for weddings and fill in on Sundays. I play the pipe organ and was on the organ committee for 8½ years. I'm treasurer of the pastoral care & counseling committee, so I'm familiar with the church's bookkeeping system. I think it will be a smooth transition."

"The Personnel Committee has already established a search committee to find our next director of finance and administration," said Rev. Tom Are. "I hope that happens by year end at the latest, but I am thrilled that Bob will be with us during the interim."

You can take advantage of a tax-free opportunity by directly transferring your required minimum distribution (RMD) to Village Presbyterian Church. Any amount you have directly transferred to Village Church will not be taxed as income.

People Like Us

June 16-Aug. 18

The Bible is filled with stories of people. Some of them are of amazing and inspiring folks. Others' stories tell of folks in desperate need. Many tell of ordinary times. These people we discover in pages of sacred scripture are, however, people like us. They endeavored to live as God's children amidst the realities of their place and time. Some of them provide inspiring examples of faith. Some walk paths we should avoid. Many were mixtures of belief and unbelief. This summer we will meet – or meet again – a collection of people who can serve as examples as we seek to live as God's children amidst the realities of the world in our time and place.
