

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

September 15, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

One of the more surprising messages from the prophets is that sometimes God wishes to be anywhere but in worship. If God is not here, then there is no point in our being here. But according to the prophets, it is not only what happens in worship that matters, but what happens when we leave worship. This is because worship reminds us what real life really is.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Ricercare from Suite circulaire
by Carson Cooman

Words of Welcome

Rev. Tom Are, Jr.

Call to Worship

Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka

O come, let us worship and bow down,

let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For the Lord is our God,

and we are the people of God's pasture,
the flock in God's hand.

On this day, we listen for God's voice.

On this day, we sing our song to God.

Hymn, No. 475

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing
NETTLETON

*Prayer of Confession

God of unfailing grace,

We are comfortable in this place,

for this is our home,

and as Your children,

we know we belong here.

But do not let us be too comfortable,

for we sometimes fail to live as Your children.

Remind us of who we are,

and tune our hearts to sing Your grace,

a grace that has brought us through many dangers, toils and snares,

and a grace that will lead us home. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response (from Hymn, No. 641)

Let every instrument be tuned for praise!

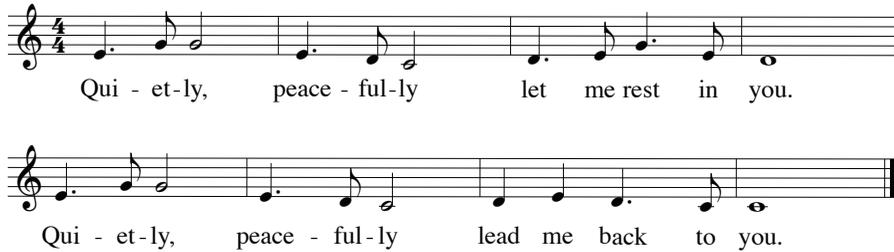

Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!

And may God give us faith to sing always: Alleluia!

*Passing of the Peace

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Call to Prayer (11 a.m.)

Qui - et-ly, peace - ful-ly let me rest in you.
Qui - et-ly, peace - ful-ly lead me back to you.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer (11 a.m.)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Time with Children (8, 9:30 a.m.)

The Sacrament of Baptism (8, 9:30 a.m.)

Baptismal Response

Baptized in Water

Baptized in water, sealed by the Spirit, Marked with the sign of Christ, our King;

Born of the Spirit, we are God's children, Joyfully now God's praises we sing.

Anthem (9:30, 11 a.m.)

Do Not Leave Your Cares at the Door
by Elizabeth Alexander; Village Voices; Annie Elmore, solo

Do not leave your cares at the door.

Do not leave them there when you come into this place.

Be open to forgiveness and transformation. Come on in.

You are welcome here; and do not leave your cares at the door.

Bring your pain and sorrow and joy.

There's a place for them upon the altar of life.

Be open to forgiveness and transformation. Come on in.

You are welcome here; and do not leave your cares at the door.

MUSIC NOTES

Today's prelude invites us to look toward the words of the prophets, which may at times feel uncomfortable and confusing. The word ricercare means "to search out." The meandering melodies of this piece cause us to search in unexpected directions, sometimes towards resolution and other times into uncertainty. It is as though each musical phrase brings a new question to mind, just as our prophets do. This prelude and postlude are taken from Carson Cooman's "Suite circulaire," which was composed specifically for this pipe organ and as a gift to the organist.

Today's Village Choir anthem, "What Is the World Like" is based on four parables: The Mustard Seed, the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan and the Ten Bridesmaids. It was written by Mennonite hymn writer Adam Tice, and will also be sung here as a hymn later this fall. Here is the text to this hopeful piece:

What is the world like when God's will is done?
Mustard seeds grow more than we can conceive:
roots thread the soil;
branches reach for the sun.
This is how God moves us each to believe.

What is the world like when God's will is done?
Witness the wandering child coming home;
watch as the parent breaks into a run.
This is how God longs for us when we roam.

What is the world like when God's will is done?
No more is neighbor just ally or friend;
peace thrives in places where once there was none.
This is how God works when rivalries end.

What is the world like when God's will is done?
Ready for feasting, we watch through the night,
tending our lamps till the new day's begun.
This is how God readies us for the light.

These are the stories that Jesus imparts, filled with the Spirit who joins us as one.
Born through our voices, our hands, and our hearts,
this is a new world where God's will is done.

Thanks to this morning's featured violinists, Bruce Williams, Laurel Schaich and Matthew Schaich, all members of the Village Players.

A LOOK TOWARD NEXT SUNDAY. . .

Next Sunday we will listen to Daniel. Daniel was a full storyteller and a strange talker. He was a preacher to folks who were facing difficult things. He had a simple but important message: we have been here before. The people of God through the ages have often faced hard times. There is something about God's faithfulness that we never learn until we have to endure the hard times.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of September 16, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Sept. 16

Amos 5:1-7

The opening words of this chapter are a foretaste of what is to come. The prophet starts with language about death and destruction. Amos warns Israel that because they have not been just and have not acted rightly, they will soon suffer. These are harsh words but true. When we do not do what is right, God is not pleased with us. Seek this day to act justly and live rightly.

Tuesday, Sept. 17

Amos 5:8-9

These words were familiar to the Hebrew people because they were likely sung as a hymn of praise. They are praising the God who created the constellations (Pleiades) and the brightest star (Orion). The prophet reminds us that God is all powerful and we are not. This can be a source of fear and a source of comfort. Know this day that God is expansive enough to be the God of the universe and intimate enough to care for you and your life.

Wednesday, Sept. 18

Amos 5:10-13

Nations endure consequences for their actions. The prophet is describing God's own people who have angered God because they care for themselves at the expense of the poor. Do not be deceived. The prophet calls this "an evil time". That word is used carefully. God sees evil and is angry when people care for the rich at the expense of the poor. These are worthy words for us today.

Thursday, Sept. 19

Amos 5:14-17

The prophet explains clearly how we are to live. Seeking good means to care for all of God's children, especially the poor, the widow, the orphan, and the stranger. Throughout the Bible, those four groups are consistently named as the responsibilities of God's people. In the gospels, Jesus time and again calls our attention to these four groups. This changes our understanding of the "good life." How are you living a good life today?

Friday, Sept. 20

Amos 5:18-20

The people of Israel are desperately seeking "the day of the Lord" but here the prophet reminds them that for those who have not lived faithfully, the coming of the day of the Lord will not be a great day. Some of us struggle with the notion of God as judgmental. It is true that grace abounds in God, but it is also true that God's grace is not cheap. Living in response to God's grace is demanding and challenging. How are you being challenged to respond to God's grace?

Saturday Sept. 21

Amos 5:21-27

I once heard a colleague say, "Tradition is the living faith of the dead. Traditionalism is the dead faith of the living." She said that too often the church has mistaken traditionalism for tradition. God is not interested in empty religious rituals and practices that keep us comfortable and risk free in our places of worship. Our worship is worthless to God if it does not lead us to bringing justice and righteousness into the whole world. How is your faith leading you to change the world?

God May Not Be Who You Think She Is

Sept. 8-Oct. 27

This is a study of the Prophets. Sometimes the Prophets critique those who do not trust in God, but usually, they are correcting (or reminding) people's confused understandings of God. That's something all of us suffer from at times. Our understanding of God is never stagnant, or at least it shouldn't be. The prophets try, often unsuccessfully to push God's people toward greater faithfulness.
