

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

October 6, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

The prophets tell the people that they are chosen by God. But they also say that the grace in their lives was not for their benefit alone. No, the prophets proclaim God's children are to be a light unto the nations. Today, on World Communion Sunday, we will recognize the work of grace that happens through this church family and reaches around the globe.

A LOOK TOWARD NEXT SUNDAY . . .

The prophet Micah teaches us that God has requirements: to do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with God. Next Sunday, Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka will speak about what it means to live out these virtues in our lives.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

In some Christian traditions, the “elevation” is the very moment at which ordinary bread and wine are lifted above the priest’s head and physically become the actual body and blood of Christ. This transformation is known as transubstantiation. During the Renaissance and Baroque periods, church musicians would play a very particular type of music to aid in this process. It was quietly dramatic, with soaring melodies and mysterious harmonies reflecting the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in her work of transforming the eucharistic host. This morning’s prelude is from a Mass by François Couperin, specifically labeled for use during the Elevation. In our Presbyterian understanding, there is no transformation of the bread or cup, but rather we understand the Spirit of Christ to be found in the people as we share the ordinary elements of bread and cup. As this prelude is offered, perhaps we will sense the Spirit of Christ elevating us.

Today the Morning Stars Children’s Choirs bring the gift of music to our worship for the first time this fall! Our Angel Choir is a preschool choir for three and four year olds led by Jenny Hull. The Prelude Choir is for Kindergarten through 2nd grade and is led by Rebecca Enslow and Kate Beebe. The Hallelujah Choir, for 3rd through 6th graders, is led by Will Breytspraak. It’s not too late to join – just contact Jenny Hull, music coordinator, at 913-671-2385 or jenny.hull@villagepres.org. We are thankful for all of our children at Village, and are so glad they are with us in worship today!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of October 7, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Zach Walker and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Oct. 7

2 Timothy 1:1-14

Paul was many things to many people. In this letter to Timothy we see Paul acting as a mentor, giving encouragement and support. Who are some people in your life you have the opportunity to mentor? How might you give encouragement to those around you?

Tuesday, Oct. 8

Habakkuk 2:1-4

I took a class on the minor prophets, and Habakkuk was one of my favorites. God speaks through Habakkuk in these verses, telling him to write on tablets "so that a runner may read it" – sounds almost like a billboard, right? When are there times in your life that you think God has attempted to put a billboard in front of you so you can't miss it?

Wednesday, Oct. 9

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles ask for something all of us have asked at one time or another: "Increase our faith!" Jesus has a strange response, hinting that there is much "doing" in having faith. In times when we wish for more faith, perhaps there is wisdom in going out to serve others as a way of rekindling a connection with God.

Thursday, Oct. 10

Psalm 37:1-9

This psalm begins with a theme of patience. It encourages us to trust in God, and trust that God is in fact working in and among us. Sometimes that means we must be willing to hold to the promises of God, even as we make requests in prayer and hold on to hope.

Friday, Oct. 11

Lamentations 3:19-26

What is it mean to say that the Lord is enough? These verses speak to that question, especially when we are in a difficult time. God is steadfast. God's mercies renew every morning. It is good to wait on the Lord. What are the things you do when you need to get through a hard time? In what ways do you invite God into those things?

Saturday, Oct. 12

Philippians 2:1-13

Paul gives this encouragement that we are to look to Christ when we wonder what to do (kind of a long way of saying, "What would Jesus do?"). When we apply that advice, it is no wonder that Paul also advises us to work out our salvation "in fear and trembling." Whenever guess at what someone would do, especially Jesus, we should be very humble, knowing the difference between "what Jesus would do" and "what we think Jesus would do."

SERMON SERIES

God May Not Be Who You Think She Is

Sept. 8-Oct. 27

This is a study of the Prophets. Sometimes the Prophets critique those who do not trust in God, but usually, they are correcting (or reminding) people's confused understandings of God. That's something all of us suffer from at times. Our understanding of God is never stagnant, or at least it shouldn't be. The prophets try, often unsuccessfully to push God's people toward greater faithfulness.
