SERVICE OF WORSHIP

October 13, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Micah hails from rural Judea. A country boy at heart, he is no doubt surprised to find himself speaking God's word in Jerusalem to high priests and kings. His words are harsh and unforgiving. He says that God is angry because of the people's disobedience and selfishness. Even their religious rituals are displeasing to God. So what does God require of God's people? Three things only: to do what is just, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with God.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Near to the Heart of God
by Brenda Portman

Words of Welcome

Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka

Call to Worship (Micah 4)

Rev. Becky Chamberlain

In the days to come, the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills. People shall stream to it, and many nations shall say:

"Come, let us go up to the house of the God of Jacob.

That God may teach us God's ways, and we may walk in God's paths."

For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.

And we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and ever.

*Hymn, No. 267

Come, Christians, Join to Sing
MADRID

*Prayer of Confession

Mighty and All-Powerful God,

We cannot help but wonder:

Who are we that You should love us?

Who are we that You should use us?

Who are we to dare to come into Your presence?

For there is no violence You cannot rend.

There is no injustice You cannot abolish.

There is no evil You cannot vanquish.

We know and sing of Your strength.

And yet there is no sin You cannot forgive,

and no sinner You cannot redeem.

There is no storm You cannot quiet,

and no wound You cannot heal.

We trust and delight in Your grace.

So forgive us, O God,

when we insist on defining the undefinable,

comprehending the incomprehensible,

and fathoming the unfathomable.

Forgive us when we try to make You small enough to fit our limited understanding.

Remind us, O God, of all You can dare and do,
and teach us, once again, that the answer to all of Your mystery
is one simple word:

"Yes." (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

Let every instrument be tuned for praise!
Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always: Alleluia!

*Passing of the Peace

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Call to Prayer

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Micah 6:1-8 (pg. 850)

Anthem

The Old Church
by Stephen Paulus; the Village Choir

The Old Church leans nearby a well worn road
upon a hill that has no grass or tree
The winds from off the prairie now unload
the dust they bring around it fitfully.

The path that leads up to the open door
is worn and grayed by many toiling feet of us who listen to the Bible lore
and once again the old time hymns repeat.

And every Sabbath Morning we are still returning to the altar standing there;
a hush, a prayer, a pause, and voices
fill the Master's House with a triumphant air.
The old church leans awry and looks quite odd,
But it is beautiful to us, and God.

WORSHIP NOTES

The Prayer of Confession was written by the Rev. Jenny McDevitt, senior pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in the city of New York, for the 2019 Worship and Music Conference at the Montreat Conference Center in Montreat, North Carolina. Jenny served as associate pastor for pastoral care here at Village Church for almost six years.

A LOOK TOWARD NEXT SUNDAY. . .

We turn to Jeremiah on Sunday and to the text that the spiritual “There is a Balm in Gilead” references. Jeremiah speaks of God’s judgment of God’s people. We might think that God’s judgment is an expression of anger, but the deeper basis of judgment is not anger, but grief. Jeremiah says that people have broken God’s heart.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of October 14, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Becky Chamberlain and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Oct. 14

I Corinthians 13:4-7

True love is more about endurance than it is about chocolates and flowers. We prove our love at precisely those moments when the people we love test our patience, put a strain on our kindness, and tempt us to anger. Love is truly love – and not just infatuation – when it proves itself in the crucible of suffering. Have you had opportunities to prove your love today? This week? This year? When it comes to living with someone, everything boils down to forgiveness.

Tuesday, Oct. 15

Matthew 10:22

In the words of Mother Teresa, “God does not require that we be successful – only that we be faithful.” Faithfulness in the midst of failure is called perseverance. Where or when have you had to practice perseverance?

Wednesday, Oct. 16

Philippians 3:20

A group of travelers had been given the honor of visiting a renowned rabbi while they were visiting in his country. When they arrived at his humble home, they were surprised to find hardly any furnishings. One of them asked him, “Rabbi, where is your furniture?” He replied, “Where is yours?” “We’re visitors,” they said. “So am I,” he replied, “so am I.” Our true citizenship is the only place where we will truly feel at home.

Thursday, Oct. 17

Philippians 2:12-15

Our call is to be who we are – children of God – and to live it out in the world. We must go out and witness to peace and stability in a culture that has lost its balance – and to show others that there even is an alternative to the chaos that has become the cultural norm. We are to simply to show up, to be present, “and shine like stars in the world.” How can you shine today? Try smiling at someone who doesn’t look like they’re going to smile back.

Friday, Oct. 18

Psalms 24:1

Everything we have is on loan to us from God. Before long, we’ll be dead and someone else will be in charge of it. This holds true on a global scale as well. Regardless of how you feel about climate change or resource depletion, we should treat the material world with enormous care because it doesn’t belong to us. We are only temporary stewards, caretakers, if you will. It’s a matter of respect for God, nature’s architect.

Saturday, Oct. 19

Mark 6:31

Isn’t it a shame that we live in a society that so fears silence? We turn the TVs on in almost every room of our homes, turn the stereos on in our cars, and plug into podcasts and music – anything to avoid silence. Try setting aside a few minutes of each day to just be silent. Maybe you’ll find that you instantly become a more peaceful person. Imagine Jesus saying to you, “Come with me by yourself to a quiet place.”

SERMON SERIES

God May Not Be Who You Think She Is

Sept. 8-Oct. 27

This is a study of the Prophets. Sometimes the Prophets critique those who do not trust in God, but usually, they are correcting (or reminding) people's confused understandings of God. That's something all of us suffer from at times. Our understanding of God is never stagnant, or at least it shouldn't be. The prophets try, often unsuccessfully to push God's people toward greater faithfulness.

Sept. 15	This Is Real Life
Sept. 22	We Have Been Here Before
Sept. 29	Isn't God Supposed to Bless Me?
