

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

November 17, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Paul's description of the resurrection is eloquent. The thought and language of the last few chapters of 1 Corinthians soar. Paul concludes, "Where, O death, is your sting?" From the depths of such mystery, Paul turns to instructions on how to take the offering. Some see this change of topic as somewhat abrupt. But perhaps Paul has not changed the topic at all. What might that mean?

*Prayer of Confession

Holy God,

You are the one who brings life from death.
We have forgotten all of that this week,
and we have made faith about small things.
Forgive us. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

Let every instrument be tuned for praise!
Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always: Alleluia!

Anthem

All That Hath Life and Breath, Praise Ye The Lord
by René Clausen; Karli Cabrera, soprano; Village Chamber Choir

All that hath life and breath praise ye the Lord, shout to the Lord, alleluia!
Praise the Lord with joyful song, sing to the Lord with thanksgiving, alleluia, praise Him!
Unto thee, O Lord, have I made supplication, and cried unto the rock of my salvation;
but thou hast heard my voice, and renewed my weary spirit.
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation.
O my soul praise Him for He is thy health and salvation.
Praise Him, laud Him, praise Him, laud Him, alleluia!

O Clap Your Hands
by R. Vaughan Williams; Village Chamber Choir

*O clap your hands, all ye people;
shout unto God with the voice of triumph.*

For the Lord most high is terrible.

He is a great King over all the earth.

*God is gone up with a shout,
the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.*

Sing praises to God; sing praises.

Sing praises to our King; sing praises.

For God is the King of all the earth.

Sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the heathen.

God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness.

Sing praises unto our King. Sing praises.

*Response

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Christ, all people here below;

Praise Holy Spirit evermore;

Praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.

The Village Chamber Choir

The Village Chamber Choir rehearses weekly after Village Choir, often preparing major choral and choral/orchestral works for worship and performances. Recent concerts include "Let My Love Be Heard" and "In Paradisum." The Chamber Choir has been doing recording sessions since February on a soon-to-be-released CD of great church anthems. You can hear the Village Chamber Choir again in our Dec. 15, "Tidings of Joy" concerts, as well as our March 29 concert "Light Eternal." The Chamber Choir will also sing in worship again on Sunday, Feb. 23.

A LOOK TOWARD NEXT SUNDAY. . .

As we gather for Thanksgiving, many of us are making lists of foods for the table. Some of us start with turkey, gravy, dressing and sweet potatoes or yams. Others of us have prime rib and mashed potatoes or salmon and fried rice or a beautiful vegetarian feast. For the new community of Christians in Rome, the Apostle Paul also created a list. He composed a list of what it means to be a true Christian. His list shows us how to treat others. At a time when our nation seems more starkly divided and when too many Thanksgiving tables are filled with tension and arguments, the Apostle points the way to a celebration where all are truly welcome. Next Sunday, we will explore how God calls us to love one another at the Thanksgiving table and beyond!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of November 18, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Tom Are, Jr. and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Nov. 18

Psalm 103

To bless is to give what is needed. God blesses us by providing for our needs. We bless God through a spirit of humble service and praise. Our lives rest in the grace of God: Bless the Lord.

Tuesday, Nov. 19

Isaiah 40:1-11

The grass withers and the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever. The world is a changing place. In the midst of great changes and fragility, the steadfast love of God is reliable. God's love creates a world-view that can be trusted in every generation. Our accomplishments, our ideas, our deeds will pass like flowers of the field, but God's love for us will endure forever.

Wednesday, Nov. 20

Matthew 13:44-45

Sometimes we are surprised...like stumbling on a hidden treasure. Other times the gospel comes only as a result of perseverance. The treasure/pearl proves to be the source of our deepest joy. What is it that gives you deepest joy? What is it in your life that is worth giving yourself to?

Thursday, Nov. 21

Matthew 14:13-21

When we think of how little we have, we will be anxious. But when we can imagine the twelve baskets left over, who knows what we might be able to do? The text invites us to trust God with all of our lives.

Friday, Nov. 22

Luke 14:7-14

There are many times we serve because it is fulfilling for us. We engage in mission because it makes us feel alive. This is a good thing. But there is more. When we are able to engage in living for what it does for another, then we know something of what full life is really like. It's not evil to do that which makes us feel good; but it's not the highest moral motivation either. Humbling yourself is wise counsel.

Saturday, Nov. 23

Matthew 14:22-33

This is not a story about magic tricks. It is a text about discipleship. Walking in the way that Jesus walks may seem impossible to some, even deadly, but it is better than being safe in the boat. What is God inviting you to risk?

The classes will provide a basic introduction to each of the books of the Old Testament. Taught by Biagio Mazza, pastoral associate at St. Sabina Parish.

HOUSING OPTIONS – PART II: NAVIGATING THE DECISION TREE – 6:30-8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 19, in Room 127. FROM DUST TO DUST – DEALING WITH THE END OF LIFE – 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 4, 11, in the Village on Mission Chapel. The poet writes in Ecclesiastes 3:20, "All go to one place; all are from dust, and all turn to dust again." The words are true for all creatures but especially for those who are facing the end of one's life here on earth. What decisions confront us both as individuals and as caregivers? How do we make faithful decisions for the end of one's life? Taught by Rev. Sally Wright, interim pastor for pastoral care.

JESUS CHRIST IS BORN! THE MIRACLE OF INCARNATION – 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 4, 11, 18, in Rooms 232 & 233. In these three classes in the weeks of Advent leading up to Christmas, we will explore the doctrine of the incarnation and how the early church struggled to form this key tenet of Christian faith. We will examine the controversies around the immaculate conception and ultimately realize how the birth of Jesus transforms our lives today. Taught by Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka.

SERMON SERIES

I Believe. Help My Unbelief.

Nov. 3-17

Church should be about the big things in your life and heart. It should be about joy and failure, about social struggles like poverty and racism, about ultimate questions like forgiveness and heaven. These are not questions that we face individually. God intended that there be a church because we cannot explore these questions apart from community. But it's not just any community. This is the body of Christ.

Because of the size of the issues and the expectations of our calling, Christian faith is always something that we will embrace with a degree of question or wonder. We will never move from a place of I believe, help my unbelief to a place of I believe 100%. Unbelief is a given with this gospel.
