SERVICE OF WORSHIP

December 1, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

The worship year in the Church begins with the season of Advent. Advent is our declaration that the world is not as God intends it to be. There is plenty of good in this world, but we are not home yet. As such, Advent expresses our impatience—a holy impatience with the way the world is today. Advent also confesses our confidence in a hope that is born of God's unfailing love.

Lighting the Candle of Hope

Call to Worship

There is a story to tell in this place.

It is a story of hope,
a story of wonder,
a story of abundant life.

It is the story of God's love:

a love that has come to us,
for God cannot bear to stay away.

This is God's story;

This is our story.

*Response

from Hymn, No. 79, v. 3

Hope blooms in a weary world
when creatures, once forlorn, find wilderness reborn.
Hope blooms in a weary world: the promised green of Eden comes.
The trees shall clap their hands; the dry lands gush with springs;
the hills and mountains shall break forth with singing!
We shall go out in joy, and be led forth in peace,
as all the world in wonder echoes shalom.

*Hymn, No. 88 (v. 1-4)

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel
VENI EMMANUEL

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,

that we may stand tall in faith,
greeting each day with confidence in Your love. (Silent Prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

from Hymn, No. 113

A LOOK TOWARD NEXT SUNDAY. . .

"Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" This is the question that John the Baptist asked of Jesus. John is in prison, and as the forerunner to the Messiah, this painful circumstance caught him by surprise. So, what we hear in his question is disappointment. It's an honest reaction to Jesus and his mysterious ways of power and powerlessness. Of course, if life has never disappointed you, you can take next Sunday off. Otherwise, you will want to be here to learn how Jesus responds to disappointment.

WELCOME CENTER ART FOR ADVENT

Visit the Welcome Center where you can find the four candles of the Advent Wreath, representing hope, peace, joy and love. This year, we invite you to add your own story to these values that we celebrate every year. Where do you see hope in this world? Where do you see the need for hope? Come by anytime during Advent and use the Post-It Notes provided to contribute where you see the presence of and need for these Advent themes in our world. The result will be our collective dreams coming together to inform our prayers for this season.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of December 1, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Sally Wright and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Dec. 2

Psalm 18:1-6

When I get scared, scared-like-adults-don't-talk-about, I have a phrase I pray over and over and over again. I simply recall the name of the trinity: "O, God, Lord Jesus, Holy Spirit." This is how I "call on the Lord in my distress." I find that it calms me. And I know God is hearing my cry of distress. How do you cry out to God for help?

Tuesday, Dec. 3

Psalm 18: 7-16

All of us have had times where we felt like we were drowning. The Psalmist describes this well. For you, perhaps it was during a move, a job change or maybe after someone died. Take 2 minutes and describe one of those times. What did it feel like? In what ways do you see God grasping for you in the figurative waters?

Wednesday, Dec. 4

Psalm 18:17-30

Verse 19 tells us why God rescued the Psalmist, "... because You delighted in me." It seems powerful to think that God enjoys us so much that God helps us through our tough times. Have you experienced anything like this? What does it mean to you that God delights in you?

Thursday, Dec. 5

Psalm 18:31-36

Sometimes I feel uncomfortable using the language of battle. Yet these verses use language of battle, common imagery of the time, to describe how God makes the Psalmist great. Today, I could describe God sustaining us using very contemporary examples like, keeping our cell phone charged or our computer virus-protected or even our coffee mug always full of hot coffee. How might you describe how God sustains us today?

Friday, Dec. 6

Psalm 18:37-45

This additional language of battle causes me to pause and consider that the Psalmist holds an image of God, where God is a type of commander-in-chief of the army. The image of God that I rely on most often comes from my very traditional Christian upbringing. I see God as an incredibly gracious and loving parental figure, with infinite patience. There are so many images for God. God as a mother hen. God as a creator. God as a shepherd. What images do you think of most often when you think about God?

Saturday, Dec. 7

Psalm 18:46-50

Pray this prayer: O God, our deliverer, our help, our rock. Show us how you strengthen us for our world today. Help us recall the times you have offered us tangible help. Show us more ways to see your hand at work in our lives. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

UPCOMING VILLAGE U CLASSES:

FROM DUST TO DUST – DEALING WITH THE END OF LIFE – 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 4, 11, in the Village on Mission Chapel. The poet writes in Ecclesiastes 3:20, "All go to one place; all are from dust, and all turn to dust again." How do we make faithful decisions for the end of one's life? Taught by Rev. Sally Wright, interim pastor for pastoral care.

JESUS CHRIST IS BORN! THE MIRACLE OF INCARNATION – 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 4, 11, 18, in Rooms 232 & 233. In these three classes in the weeks of Advent leading up to Christmas, we will explore the doctrine of the incarnation and how the early church struggled to form this key tenet of Christian faith. We will examine the controversies around the immaculate conception and ultimately realize how the birth of Jesus transforms our lives today. Taught by Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka.

ADVENT SERMON SERIES

I Won't Be Home for Christmas

Dec. 1-24

Advent is a season of waiting. The church is always in Advent, because we are always waiting on what God will do next. Although it is only this time of year that we mark that posture of expectation. Why are we always waiting? Because we aren't home yet. We, nor the world itself, are as God intends us to be. So, as a people who are always "on the way," we continue the journey toward home. This series will rehearse some of the expressions of waiting (which can be another word for hope) that is part of this long tradition.
