

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

January 8, 2017 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

"I permit no woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she is to keep silent." That's what the apostle said in 1 Timothy. Through the ages these words have empowered the church to ignore, degrade and oppress women. "She is to keep silent." That's what it says...but that's not what it means. There is an instructive word buried in this painful exhortation. You have, no doubt, learned much about Christian faith from women in your lives. Today, we will see why your own experiences are holy.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

I Love to Tell the Story

Call to Worship

Rev. Jenny McDevitt

If you are filled with conviction, welcome home:

here we proclaim that the world is beautiful and God is good.

If you are filled with heartbreak, welcome home:

here we offer comfort to those who weep and rest to those who are weary.

If you are filled with questions, welcome home:

here we nurture belief and make space for doubt.

If you are filled with skepticism, welcome home:

here we trust old words while listening for new understanding.

If you are filled with hope, welcome home:

here when we worship, God is among us, and everything is possible.

*Hymn, No. 50

Deep in the Shadows of the Past
SHEPHERDS' PIPES

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,

This world can be complicated and your Word can be confusing.

Forgive us when we make mistakes.

We speak when we should listen, and we stay silent when the world needs to hear our voices.

We take it upon ourselves to dictate the worth of others and we allow others to dictate our worth.

Some of this we do knowingly and some of this we do unconsciously.

All of this breaks your heart, God.

We know this.

So break our hearts, instead.

Break our hearts wide open,

so we can more fully receive your love,

so we can live the way you wish for us to live. (Silent prayer)

The Constitutional Questions for Officers

Do you trust in Jesus Christ your Savior, acknowledge him Lord of all and Head of the Church, and through him believe in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

Do you accept the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be, by the Holy Spirit, the unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ in the Church universal, and God's Word to you?

Do you sincerely receive and adopt the essential tenets of the Reformed faith as expressed in the confessions of our church as authentic and reliable expositions of what Scripture leads us to believe and do, and will you be instructed and led by those confessions as you lead the people of God?

Will you fulfill your office in obedience to Jesus Christ, under the authority of Scripture, and be continually guided by our confessions?

Will you be governed by our church's policy, and will you abide by its discipline?

Will you be a friend among your colleagues in ministry, working with them, subject to the ordering of God's Work and Spirit?

Will you in your own life seek to follow the Lord Jesus Christ, love your neighbor and work for the reconciliation of the world?

Do you promise to further the peace, unity and purity of the church?

Will you seek to serve the people with energy, intelligence, imagination and love?

(For Elders) Will you be a faithful Elder, watching over the people, providing for their worship, nurture, and service? Will you share in government and discipline, serving in governing bodies of the church, and in your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?

(For Deacons) Will you be a faithful Deacon, teaching charity, urging concern and directing the people's help to the friendless and those in need, and in your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?

The Constitutional Questions for the Congregation

Do we, the members of the church, accept these brothers and sisters as Elders or Deacons, chosen by God through the voice of this congregation to lead us in the way of Jesus Christ?

Do we agree to encourage them, to respect their decisions and to follow as they guide us, serving Jesus Christ, who alone is Head of the Church?

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of January 9, 2016)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Len Carrell and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, Jan. 9

Isaiah 42:1-9

Old things have come to pass - new things are springing forth. This is an important declaration of our faith. That God is doing a new thing every day; not just in a new year, but in a new you. The primary voice in this text is God. First, God speaks of someone who will come bringing justice to all nations. As Christians, we understand this to be Christ. But then God focuses on the reader, on us. Reminding us that we are called "people of God," to be bearers of new light in a dark, cold world.

Tuesday, Jan. 10

Matthew 3:13-17

This Sunday is Baptism of the Lord Sunday. This is the day we celebrate and recognize that all of the Church shares together in one baptism – a baptism that is marked by Christ's own baptism. The promise of our baptism is that we are marked as Christ's own and belong to God forever.

Wednesday, Jan. 11

Acts 10:34-43

Preach it, Peter, Preach! "God shows no partiality," Peter boldly proclaims. That's what acceptance through Christ looks like, no partiality. Living in awe of God, working to do what is right in God's eyes, treating everyone with grace, trusting forgiveness to be real, this is what it means to be in right relationship with God. Jesus is showing us the way. Jesus is Lord of all!

Thursday, Jan. 12

Psalms 29

The voices of the psalmists are the voices of the worshippers of God. They recognize the strength and the glory that rest in the voice of God. It is the spirit of the divine word that moves over the mighty water. This text recognizes the power water holds, and it cries out that such strength and glory rest peacefully on God's people.

Friday, Jan. 13

John 1:29-42

John's telling of the baptism story does physically what the other gospel accounts allude to. John's understanding of John the Baptist is that he literally points to the one who is the Lamb of God. Even in our own baptism, it symbolizes what God has already done by giving us life. Like our own baptism, Christ's baptism points to how this life is a gift from God above. In John's Gospel, we "come and see" that all baptism points to Christ as the Lamb of God.

Saturday, Jan. 14

Matthew 28:16-20

It is only faithful as we reflect on baptism, to remind ourselves of Jesus's great commission to all of us. Go out and make real the truth of discipleship by baptizing the nations "in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Do this by teaching and proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ. But do this with the authority that rests in this promise: "I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Second Thursday Recital Jan. 12 Featured Artist: Soprano Jee-Yeun Kim

She wowed us with her spectacular solo in O Holy Night in Tidings of Joy on Dec. 18. Join us at 12:15 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 12, in Village Chapel for a 30-minute recital with Village Church soprano intern Jee-Yeun Kim. The program will include works by Samuel Barber, Francis Poulenc, Vincenzo Bellini and Giuseppe Verdi.

Jee-Yeun Kim is a graduate student (D.M.A) in vocal and opera at University of Kansas. Jee-Yeun began her vocal studies at age nine as a member of the Seoul Metropolitan Junior Chorus in her native Korea. She sang with them for 10 years before continuing her studies at the College of Vocal Music at Yonsei University in Korea. During that time, she also pursued voice study in the Summer Master Class program of the Hochschule Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria. Following her graduation she began teaching in high school, while also working as a church choir director. After moving to the United States of America, Jee-Yeun started to study again in voice and choral conducting at Pittsburg State University. She was a first place winner in the West Central Region of the National Association of Teachers of Singing in 2012 and a first place winner in the Barry Alexander International Vocal Competition.

She made her Carnegie Hall debut in the winner's recital for the Barry Alexander International Vocal competition on Jan. 27, 2013. At Pittsburg State University, Jee-Yeun received the Outstanding Student award at the PSU Honors Convocation in Spring 2013 and 2015. She received an "Excellence in Scholarship" award at the Graduate Banquet in Spring 2013, 2014 and 2015. She performed with South East Kansas Symphony Orchestra as a winner of the Concerto Aria competition held in the spring of 2013. Jee-Yeun has had several roles in KU opera productions.

NEW SERMON SERIES

I Know That's What It Says, but That's Not What It Means!

The Bible is a complicated book, written over hundreds of years in various context and diverse circumstances. And then, it is read 2,000 years later in a world and culture the Biblical writers could not have imagined. Given all of that, it's easy to misunderstand the Bible. When it is misunderstood the good news can often sound like bad news for some folks. When it is misunderstood it can often make the Bible more difficult to trust. In this sermon series, we will take just a few passages that have often been confusing and see if there is a life-giving word for us.

- Jan. 1 The Story of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation
- Jan. 8 "Women Keep Silent?" This Doesn't Sound Like Good News
- Jan. 15 Family Matters and the Cost of Following Jesus
- Jan. 22 "Divorce" – Why the Church has Read This Text to the Wrong People
- Jan. 29 "You Must be Born Again!"
- Feb. 5 "Jesus is the Only Way to Salvation." This is Not About You. This is About God.
- Feb. 12 Be Perfect as Your Heavenly Father is Perfect." Intimidated Yet?
- Feb. 19 The Only Safe Place for Hatred
- Feb. 26 Pray Without Ceasing
