

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

February 3, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Jesus didn't talk about heaven very much, but when he did, he spoke in simple metaphors. It's like a wedding banquet where all are invited. It's like a mansion with a room waiting for you. It's like a winner's crown for a race well run. The consistent theme is that we belong there. We will be at home, a home we spend our entire lives seeking.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Adagio cantabile from Sonata Pathetique
by Ludwig van Beethoven

Words of Welcome

Rev. Tom Are, Jr.

Call to Worship

Rev. Zach Walker

They whispered early morning words: "He is risen," and an undying hope was born.

Just as he told us, life lives beyond death.

For God is faithful and will not let go of us.

Hear again the promises of our faithful God:

nothing separates us from God's love;
in my Father's house are many rooms;
today you will be with me in paradise.

Hold fast to the promises of the Risen One.

Alleluia! Amen!

*Hymn, No. 409 (v. 3 choir only)

God Is Here!
ABBOT'S LEIGH

*Prayer of Confession

God of grace and glory,
We live as if You have made no promises.
We live as if Your love is weak.
We live as if nothing matters beyond our own work.
Forgive our puny imaginations and our paltry hope.
May Your promises become the substance of our dreams. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

Peruvian Folk Song

Glory to God, glory to God, glory in the highest!

Glory to God, glory to God, glory in the highest!

To God be glory forever!

To God be glory forever!

Alleluya, Amen! Alleluya, Amen! Alleluya, Amen!

Alleluya, Amen! Alleluya, Amen! Alleluya, Amen!

Scripture Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8 (pg. 1085)

Call to Prayer (from Hymn, No. 288)

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Melt me; mold me; fill me; use me. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; he makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil;
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Sermon

Can We Really Trust that We Will Go to Heaven?

Rev. Tom Are, Jr.

MUSIC NOTES

Today we give thanks for the children and youth of our church family as they share their gift of song and instrumental music with us in the 9:30 a.m. service. Their anthem, "Building a House," was specially composed for the Angel Choir, Prelude Choir, Hallelujah Choir and Youth Band by Village's very own Kevin Dolan/Dino O'Dell. The song is about the joys of building not just a house, but community, together.

Discover Village Information Center

Stop by the Discover Village desk at the north end of the Welcome Center to connect, ask questions and share a conversation about your life in the Village Church community. February Spotlight Children and Family Ministry/ Children's Sunday School. Talk with Children's Sunday School teachers/ committee members about your family's involvement in the Village Church Children's Sunday School program.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of February 4, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Hallie Hottle and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Feb. 4

Psalm 23:1

This week we're going to parse out this beloved psalm, meditating on one verse at a time. We begin with the first line, a metaphor comparing God to a shepherd. Pull yourself away from the images of fluffy sheep on a green hillside. How would you begin this psalm of personal praise? As you meditate and pray today, let yourself compose a new metaphor. The Lord is my....

Tuesday, Feb. 5

Psalm 23:2

Green pastures and still waters. It's an image my heart longs for in chaotic or hurting seasons. It's an image that points to tomorrow's verse about restoration. How is God leading you to rest right now? What does your place of rest look like? Let your heart imagine that place, and linger there.

Wednesday, Feb. 6

Psalm 23:3

Imagine where you are right now as a point on a path. If it looks like mine, it's filled with curves and turns and about-faces. We trust that God has been there with you all along. So let yourself look back. Where can you see Holy fingerprints along your journey? Where are you certain your paths have been right? How have you given God glory there, or how might you now?

Thursday, Feb. 7

Psalm 23:4

The dark valley. The valley of the shadow of death. I think we know that place. And if we do, we know that next line, "I do not fear," is profound. The "rod and staff" are a little more elusive for me, but I have my own markers, my own signposts that have served to encourage me when traversing my valleys. Repeat this verse as your statement of faith today, and fill in our own markers. What gives you hope and assurance to endure the valleys?

Friday, Feb. 8

Psalm 23:5

A "prepared table" here is a sign of being well cared for. That table being "in the presence of enemies" points to the enduring nature of God's care. Enemies, demons, struggles and fears, they never seem to leave the room when we want them to. God doesn't wait for the hard things to be gone before the table is set. What might be preventing you from coming to the table? How might you be called to experience God's overflowing mercy, not because of or without the hardship also present, but in spite of it?

Saturday, Feb. 9

Psalm 23:6

As we end this week and this psalm, how are you aware of goodness, mercy, and kindness this day? How can you practice both noticing these, and sharing them with others? For they are present all of our days. And our noticing and practicing can surely help us to see Holy's dwelling surrounding us today, and always.

FAITH JOURNEY – Through Feb. 10, Walt Grainger leads the discussion for "Vanishing Grace" (Whatever happened to the good news?). A mixture of video content and group discussion as we bring alive the stories of the New Testament. Facilitated by Lawrence Andre. Room 124.

VILLAGE FORUM – Sundays in February will be an exploration of Warren Carter's "Telling Tales About Jesus: An Introduction to the New Testament." Each will be devoted to one of the Gospels and Dr. Carter's insights into why each of the Gospel writers tells the story the way he does.
