

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

February 16, 2020 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

This is the story that has rooted our sermon series. Jesus asks, "Who do they say that I am?" The disciples have some answers. They've been listening. They know what people say. But Jesus isn't done. His next question is harder. This time only Peter attempts a response. It always comes to this. At some point in this life we're made to turn from information collection to a personal confession of faith. Jesus wants to know...but what about you? Who do you say that I am?

Call to Worship

Rev. Sally Wright

The Messiah, the Beloved, our trouble-making teacher,

Rabbi, Son, the One the world awaited.

The Christ, our Lord, the bringer of final peace,

the Crucified, the Risen, the One we shall keep awaiting.

You, bigger than every name.

You, small enough to know our names.

It is You we come to worship.

It is You we seek to praise.

*Hymn, No. 450

Be Thou My Vision
SLANE

*Prayer of Confession

Forgive us, Jesus.

For it's hard for us to say who You are,
when it requires us to be honest
about ourselves.

It's hard for us to say who You are,
when we've seen Your beauty,
and not paused to praise it.

It's hard for us to say who You are,
when we've scoffed at brokenness,
and not recognized we created it.

It's hard for us to say who You are,
when it requires us to confess that we know something of Your love
but fail to live like it.

Forgive us, Jesus,

and help us to turn toward You, again and again. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response (from Hymn, No. 582)

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me,
And to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
And to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Call to Prayer (from Hymn, No. 288)

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me; mold me; fill me; use me. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Affirmation of Faith, from A Declaration of Faith

Jesus lived a truly human life. Jesus was what we are.
He grew up in a family and a society
troubled by the common problems of the world.
His knowledge was limited
by his time and place in history.
He felt deeply the joy of friendship
and the hurt of being rejected.
Jesus prayed,
struggled with temptation,
knew anger,
and was subject to suffering and death.
He was like us in every way except sin.

Jesus was what we should be.
He served his Father with complete trust
and unwavering obedience.
He loved all kinds of people
and accepted their love.
In constant dependence upon the Holy Spirit,
Jesus allowed no temptation or threat to keep him from loving God with his whole being and his neighbor as himself.

We recognize in Jesus what God created us to be.
He exposes our failure to live as he lived.
He demonstrates the new humanity
God promises to give us through him.

A LOOK TOWARD NEXT SUNDAY . . .

This sermon series on "Who Do People Say That I Am?" has keenly focused our attention on the identity of Jesus Christ. Jesus began the conversation with his disciples asking them who others say that he is. Then he turned to them and asked them "Who do you say that I am?" As followers of Jesus Christ, each of us must answer that question for ourselves. As Rev. Hallie Hottle explores that important question today, next Sunday Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka will share his own answer. Through Jesus' three parables in Luke 15, we will discover that Jesus is the one who finds the lost and brings them home.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of February 17, 2020)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Hallie Hottle and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Feb. 17

John 9:1-17

This is an amazing story. We've spent this new year talking about Jesus' identity. In this story, no one understands. Even the man who has been healed doesn't get it completely right. As you read, imagine yourself as each of the characters in this story. Which one would you have been? Let your mind wonder, and offer it all up as confession, asking that God help you "see" in these days.

Tuesday, Feb. 18

John 9:18-41

This wild story continues. Here, the healed man is questioned by those in power. His confession is probably my favorite in all of scripture. He doesn't fully know who Jesus is (yet), so he says, "All I know is, I was blind, and now I see." It's true that in the end, our strongest testimony is what we have experienced. Spend some time remembering today, what you have experienced of God's love. Let your prayer be a rehearsal of those memories, and give thanks.

Wednesday, Feb. 19

John 10:1-18

Our last reading from John this week is a little confusing. If we were to search our collective understanding of who Jesus is today, I don't know if shepherd would be top of our list. The image was important to his audience at the time. Search this text to get behind the image, and look at who Jesus is telling us he is. How might you pray to our good shepherd today?

Thursday, Feb. 20

Psalms 27

Last Sunday in worship we talked a little on the theme of growing in your own relationship with God. As you read today's psalm, try reading it as prayer. That is, read it "to" God, instead of "about" God. Address your words to the Holy as praise and conversation. What else might you add?

Friday, Feb. 21

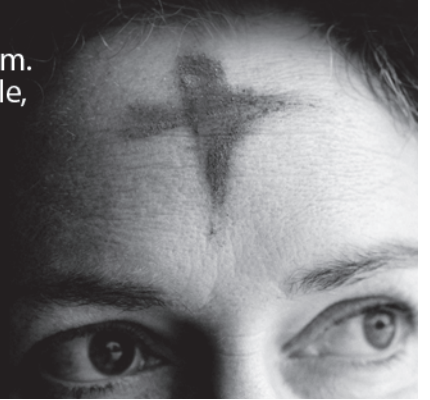

Psalms 139

This is my favorite psalm. It speaks to how God knows you. In all our search to know God, these words remind us that God already knows us. As we close this week, and look towards the start of Lent, I invite you to use this psalm as a prayer. What would it be like to invite God to know you even more?

ADULT EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY

MENEILLY VISITING SCHOLAR LECTURE SERIES – Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary professors The Rev. Dr. Margaret Aymer and The Rev. Dr. Carolyn Helsel will lead us in a study on March 6 & 7 entitled “Impolite Dinner Conversation: The Politics of Christ and the Church.” In this lecture series, our speakers invite us to consider what the gospels say about the politics of Jesus and how the church has tried, and often failed, to live into Jesus' political vision for this God-beloved world. Admission is free.

SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES – Four ongoing adult classes learn and grow together 9:30-10:30 a.m. Sunday mornings. Classroom discussions range from studying the New Testament to exploring the ancient biblical world to deciding how Christians live faithfully given today's complex challenges. For more information, talk with a Discover Village guide at our north and south entrances.

11 A.M. ADULT CLASS: WHAT ABOUT THE BUMBLEBEES AND FIREFLIES? The news this week reported the devastating data that bumblebee populations in North America have declined by half in a generation. Fireflies are also under threat. Both declines are due to climate change. This week we will explore the impact of climate change and God's call to us all to be stewards of God's creation. All are welcome to this six-week adult faith formation class. Each week we will explore events in the world through the lenses of our faith, scripture and tradition. The class is taught by Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka. 10:45-11:45 a.m. Rooms 132-133.

VILLAGE U COMMUNITY CLASSES – Registration is open. Visit villagepres.org/village-u-community-classes for more information.

THE QUR'AN AND THE BIBLE – The Qur'an, God's revelation to Muslims through the prophet Muhammed, shares many similarities with the Bible in terms of stories and persons. Biago Mazza, pastoral associate at St. Sabina Parish in Belton, Missouri, will lead this class in exploring the stories and persons that appear in both texts and discussing their similarities and differences. Register online under Village U. 6:30-8 p.m. Mondays, March 2-30, in Room 126.

ENTERING THE PASSION OF JESUS – In “Entering the Passion of Jesus: A Beginner’s Guide to Holy Week,” the Vanderbilt professor and biblical scholar Amy-Jill Levine helps us explore the last days of Jesus’ life. Come see her each week on video and learn what this noted Jewish New Testament scholar wants us to contemplate this Lent. Discussion on each video clip will be led by Dr. Gus Breytspraak. Register online under Village U. 4:30-5:30 p.m. Wednesdays, March 4-April 8, in Room 127.

Peter DeVeau will lead this class in exploring the themes and art of the Saint John’s Bible, a handwritten and illuminated Bible commissioned by a Benedictine Abbey. Select passages of illuminated scripture will serve as windows through which to gain a deeper understanding of what it means to be baptized in Christ. At the stated Session meeting on Feb. 3, the Session acted on the recommendation of the search committee, chaired by Stacey Janssen, that Mr. Jim Tilden be called as our senior director of business operations, filling the position previously held by Kathy Lueckert. For almost 40 years, Jim has practiced law. He holds a B.S. in Business Administration (accounting/finance) from Iowa State and his Juris Doctor from University of Iowa College of Law. He and his wife, Becky, have been members of Village for about 35 years, having previously served as an elder, deacon, Associate Pastor Nominating Committee chair, a member of the Now & Tomorrow Capital Campaign Committee, among others. We are delighted that Jim will be joining the Village staff. He will begin his work in early March.

A Fond Farewell from Molly Sirridge

Dear friends,

I am going to miss you! These last 8½ years have been the best working years in my life – I'm not kidding. Many of you joined with me in our efforts of stewardship, Endowment Trust and the Now & Tomorrow capital campaign for Village Church. I had the privilege of getting to know and learn from you. You brought such love, generosity, wisdom, fun and hard work to whatever goal we were working towards. It was truly a wonderful time in my life.

I wish each of you much love and joy in your future endeavors.

You are in my heart,
Molly

P.S. If you have any questions regarding your gifts to Village Church, please call Bob Sperry at 913-262-4200.

Winter Weather Advisory

If the weather forecast is to have 4 inches or more snowfall during Saturday night, the 8 a.m. worship service at Village on Mission will be cancelled.

SERMON SERIES

Who Do People Say That I Am?

The birth of Jesus comes with many claims regarding his identity. Who is this child? The Angelic choir called him the messiah. Gabriel called him God's son. Some preferred the name Immanuel. All this and more to describe the child of manger straw. But how do we describe Jesus now? Jesus asked his own followers, "Who do you say that I am?" There's not one answer to that question. Oh, it's possible to answer it by quoting the creeds "his only son, our Lord." But a survey of the Gospel writers reveals that each gospel writer speaks of Jesus differently. Over the next few weeks, we will listen to each Gospel writer's response to the question, "Who do you say that I am?" We will end the series reflecting on how our understanding of who Jesus is influences our understanding of who we are to be.
