SERVICE OF WORSHIP

March 3, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Picture the scene: Jesus is being followed by a crowd of people, and to better speak to them he asks to use the boat of some fisherman. They've been out all night fishing and are ready to move on with their lives. But, perhaps out of curiosity or hospitality, they do as Jesus asks. Eventually they are in deep water in need of help, and that's when they decide to follow this Jesus. How did they get there?

MUSIC NOTES

Today's middle hymn, "Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore," is closely tied to today's scripture, and is one of the most popular songs to emerge from the 1970s revival of religious song in Spain. The hymn asks singers to become like the fishermen who left boats and nets to follow Jesus, first as disciples learning his way of love, then as apostles carrying that love to others.

Discover Village Information Center

A place for you to connect and ask questions. You're invited to stop by our Discover Village desk, between worship services, at the north Welcome Center entrance. Hosts will be available at the desk every Sunday morning; a place where you can share conversation and enjoy a cookie. We look forward to meeting you!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of March 4, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Becky Chamberlain and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, March 4

Psalm 103:1

This psalm is one of my absolute favorites! There are so many verses that should be memorized and celebrated each day. The psalmist begins by instructing his soul, his very self – to “bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless God’s holy name.” What a great verse to recite first thing in the morning before your feet even touch the floor. Would your day be different if you started it with this verse?

Tuesday, March 5

Psalm 103:2-5

In these verses the psalmist admonishes us not to forget the Lord’s benefits: God forgives all, heals all, redeems your life, crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, satisfies you with good as long as you live, renews your youth like the eagle’s. Which of these benefits do you especially want to remember today as you bless the Lord?

Ash Wednesday, March 6

Psalm 103:6-14

Some of us will receive the mark of ashes today and the words, “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” Lent is a 40-day journey of soul-searching, prayer, and pilgrimage with Jesus to the cross. You may want to give up something that distracts you from that journey or add some new practice or activity that makes the journey richer and life-changing. What do you learn of God’s character in these verses that motivates you to observe the Lenten journey?

Thursday, March 7

Psalm 103:15-16

Of the many poetic reminders of our mortality, verses 15-16 of this psalm are some of the most poignant. We are to remember the brevity of life and savor each moment. In one of her poems, Mary Oliver asked this question: “Tell me, what will you do with your one wild and precious life?” I think God asks this same question of us. How might you answer?

Friday, March 8

Psalm 103:17-18

What a contrast to Thursday’s verses! The psalmist says that whereas we flourish briefly like flowers and then are gone, the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting, beyond time itself, on those who reverence God and teach future generations to reverence God as well. This is God’s immortal covenant with all who love God and live in grateful surrender to that love.

Saturday, March 9

Psalm 103:19-22

The psalmist closes with the way the psalm began: Bless the Lord! There is a picture here of all creation joining together, blessing the God whose kingdom will ultimately rule over all. Because God’s sovereignty is over all, all beings and all things are invited to bless the Lord. We put ourselves in tune with the whole cosmic order when we bless the Lord. The psalm concludes by focusing attention again on each of us. “Bless the Lord, O my soul!”
