SERVICE OF WORSHIP

March 10, 2019 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Paul says he is called to be an apostle, to be someone “who is sent.” In ministry we are both called and sent. For Paul, that meant preaching good news in places like Galatia and Philippi, Thessalonica and Ephesus. It meant sharing relationships in ministry with Silas and Timothy, Mark and Onesimus, Priscilla and Aquila. It meant being called and sent to a community of brothers and sisters. Sometimes, especially for Paul, it meant being called and sent to a place he had never been before. Paul knew God was doing all of this, and God’s intention was witnessed in and through the church. We are all called to share our spiritual gifts, but where that usually leads us is to the gift of each other’s faith.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

More Love to Thee, O Christ
by James Southbridge

Words of Welcome

Rev. Len Carrell

Call to Worship

Rev. Hallie Hottle

Gathered in this place we have come to worship a living God.

We are the lost and forsaken, the proud and strong, the young and old.

We are God's people, the sheep of His pasture.

In this space we speak our fears and envision our dreams.

We are awakened, and rise at the sound of our name.

Let us enter God's gates with thanksgiving, and Her courts with praise.

In here God's love welcomes us, and God's love sends us out.

Give us the courage to enter the song.

Make a joyful noise all the earth, come into God's presence with singing.

*Hymn, No. 401

Here in This Place
GATHER US IN

*Prayer of Confession

Harmonious God,

You have fashioned us that even though we are many, we are one body;

even though we are different, we follow one shepherd;

even though we are diverse, we are held together by one holy love.

Forgive us, when we say we are open, but closed to some,

when we claim to be forgiving and just, but not for all,

when we know we have the power to change, but are afraid,

when we trust love to be the answer, but love is not how we answer.

Renew us, God, for we know what we are doing, and we do it anyway.

Turn our hearts to You, that we may turn our lives to You in reply. (Silent prayer)

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Hymn, No. 693

Though I May Speak

GIFT OF LOVE

Offertory

Richte mich, Gott

music: Felix Mendelssohn; Village Chamber Choir

*Do me justice, o God, and fight my fight against a faithless people;
from the deceitful and impious man rescue me.
For you, o God, are my strength.
Why do you keep me so far away?
Why must I go about in mourning,
With the enemy oppressing me?
Send forth your light and your fidelity;
they shall lead me on
And bring me to your holy mountain,
to your dwelling place.*

*Then will I go in to the altar of God,
the God of my gladness and joy;
Then will I give you thanks upon the harp, my God
Why are you so downcast, o my soul?
And why do you sigh within me?
Hope in God! Then I will again give him thanks,
In the presence of my savior
and my God.*

–Psalm 43

*Response (from Hymn, No. 694)

Great God of every blessing, of faithful, loving care,
You are the fount of goodness, the daily bread we share.
How can we hope to thank you? Our praise is but a start:
Sincerely and completely I offer you my heart.

*Prayer of Dedication

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

Invitation

Prayer of Thanksgiving and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

Today we welcome the Village Chamber choir to worship. The Chamber Choir rehearses major works weekly after Village Choir, and gives performances both alone and in collaboration with other area choruses. Recent concerts include "The Peacemakers" and "Tidings of Joy," with music of Rachmaninoff, Howells, Paulus and Fischer. Come hear the Village Chamber Choir sing Faure's Requiem at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 7, in a concert entitled "In Paradisum." That concert will also feature Elisa Bickers playing Poulenc's "Organ Concerto."

Discover Village Information Center

A place for you to connect and ask questions. You're invited to stop by our Discover Village desk, between worship services, at the north Welcome Center entrance. Hosts will be available at the desk every Sunday morning; a place where you can share conversation and enjoy a cookie. We look forward to meeting you!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of March 11, 2019)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Len Carrell and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, March 11

Psalm 100

This Psalm is summoning all the earth into joyful, holy noise making. Notice how God calls people, sheep and pasture together; even the gates and courts of royalty are included. Nothing on this earth or in this world is separated from each other or from God. In fact, all of life is intended for the glory and praise of God and that is a life of joyful, holy noise making.

Tuesday, March 12

Matthew 4:18-22

This is Jesus calling his first disciples, and we know this: they were fishermen. They were two sets of brothers. They were on the same beach. But were they rival businesses? These two sets of brothers, they worked the same sea and sold their fish in the same marketplace. Jesus redefines their work. It is no longer about who has the most fish. Their mission now is to work together and serve all of God's people.

Wednesday, March 13

Deuteronomy 26:1-11

The future tense of this text instructs the Israelites what to do...collect the first fruits of their harvest and bring them to God who provided the harvest in the first place. It is about returning to God some of all that has been given to us by God. In this Lenten season, what are you harvesting and offering to God?

Thursday, March 14

Psalm 91

The psalmist uses many images of God as refuge and shelter, and a protector and keeper of life. Destruction and peril and sword and enemy seem to be all around us, but God is here too. The fear of night and the slings and arrows of day are real, but God covers and shields us. What is your prayer today, "God cover me," or, "Thank God, you're here?"

Friday, March 15

Luke 4:1-13

It has always been alarming to me in the story of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness, that the devil quotes scripture. He actually quotes Psalm 91, testing Jesus to throw himself from the highest mountain and "commanding angels to protect him" and "on their hands bear him up." The psalm and Jesus' reply is not about testing God's protection of us, it is about knowing God protects us.

Saturday, March 16

Romans 5:1-5

Justified by faith through grace: this is a core Reformed theological claim. We are not saved by our own doing; it is by grace alone. But what is faith if not a faith that trusts in the actions of God's grace moving us to our shared human struggle into a hope that never disappoints? Do you have a hope that never disappoints? How does that hope strengthen your faith?

UPCOMING SERMONS

Character is Always Chosen

March 17-April 21

In these weeks that lead us, once again, to the celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we will reflect on who we are called to be as we take our own journey toward the fullness of resurrection. "Who we are called to be" is the point of this sermon series. In his book, "The Road to Character," David Brooks says, "Most of us have clearer strategies for how to achieve career success than we do for how to develop a profound character." There is wisdom in Brook's remarks, as character is not something that just happens; character is always chosen. Physical growth happens naturally. Spiritual growth requires discipline, intention and choice. We will reflect on some of the strategies for choosing character in this sermon series.
