

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

March 6, 2016 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

I'm not sure it is possible to be Christian without being a hypocrite. Christians are always a mixture of "I believe, help my unbelief." In church we are reminded that even when we are not particularly good Christians, being Christian is still a particularly good thing. If you want to be like Jesus, then you need to be in church—because in church we say out loud who God believes we can be.

Call to Worship

Rev. Brian Ellison, parish associate

In mystery and grandeur,

we see the face of God.

In earthiness and the ordinary,

we know the love of Christ.

In heights and depths, in life and death,

the Spirit is moving among us.

Let us worship the God who is with us always.

*Hymn, No. 679

Let the Whole Creation Cry
SALZBURG

*Prayer of Confession

Merciful God,

We confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you

with our whole heart and mind and strength.

We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been,

help us amend what we are,

and direct what we shall be,

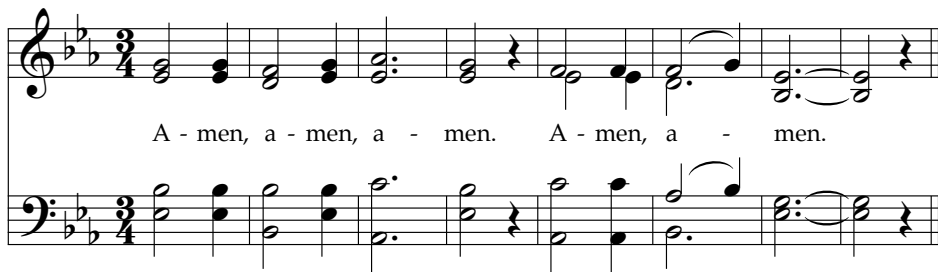

so that we may delight in your will

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your holy name. (Silent prayer)

*Response

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of March 7, 2016)

The following are daily Bible readings offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, March 7

Colossians 1:1-2

All of the epistle writings begin with an opening salutation. It was typical in ancient letters to end with the word "Greetings." But Paul seems to alter this expectation by offering a blessing, as well as a greeting. The Greek word chairein is "greetings," and he changes it to the word charis, which means grace. Grace and peace to you!

Tuesday, March 8

Colossians 1:3-8

We have seen it before in the writings of Paul. He loves to link faith, hope and love together. But in this letter to Colossae it is hope that is the anchor of faith and love. Hope will be the overarching theme of this letter. After all, it is a central message of the gospel. The gospel draws us into faith in Jesus Christ, and calls us to love one another; because of the hope we have in God's promised new day.

Wednesday, March 9

Colossians 1:9-14

Our prayer is that God will continue to lead us from darkness into the light. It was also the prayer of this writer to the church. The author writes about a cosmic power of darkness that God is saving us from. And God must first act in order for us to have the knowledge of divine grace. The result of this knowledge is that we will bear fruits of the Spirit and respond by living out the Christian life through love.

Thursday, March 10

Colossians 1:15-20

This text is perhaps one of the oldest hymns in the Christian church. It gives us great imagery of the cosmos, and how Christ is the agent and the bond of creation. It says, "He is the image of the invisible God." But this image is not a copy or photograph of God, but the true manifestation of God's being. This hymn becomes the theological anchor for the entire letter with Christ at the center of all in all.

Friday, March 11

Colossians 1:21-23

We were once estranged from God, and now reconciled. This is the hope promised in the gospel that we are to stay steadfast in our faith. Right after the great cosmic hymn of Christ at the center of all things, we are reminded how we must live out this truth. What is hoped for on a cosmic level must be actualized in the ordinary reality of mundane life.

Saturday, March 12

Colossians 1:24-2:5

Great is the mystery of faith. We say this when praying the great prayer of thanksgiving at the Lord's Table. Mystery has long been explained as some kind of divine secret story. But through the gospel of Christ this mystery can be learned and known. But this knowledge is not of things, but of a transforming touch of divine love of that all of us are a part.

Welcome Center Opens Next Sunday, March 13

About the Design from Brian Rathsam and David Evans, Mantel Teter Architects

The Welcome Center materials and motif had to be carefully considered and blended, making the new addition appear that it had always been there.

A real sense of 'entry' and identification was absent from the north and west façade at Village Church. This addition provided an opportunity to create an "Art of Arrival" experience. The introduction of several large glass windows along Mission Road allows the building to be 'open' and outstretched to the community. This openness and transparency allows those passing by to see in and notice activity within the church, a feature that didn't previously exist.

Various spaces are available for people to have community together, have conversations, and most importantly, simply connect in relationship.

New Amenities for People with Limited Mobility

Those needing extra care and assistance will now be able to drive their car under a canopy that covers the entire drive for unloading at the new north entry. Folks will be able to immediately enter the building and then have access to the large elevator that serves all floor levels. The elevator cab has access doors on each end.

They can come right in the entrance on the ground floor and take the elevator up to the Sanctuary level and enter through west side doors to the Sanctuary, or they can enjoy the Welcome Center and enter the Sanctuary through the Narthex. There are no stairs to impede them doing that.

Welcome Center Traffic Advisory

On Sunday mornings and days when we have heavy traffic events, the north Mission Road entrance will be blocked off. This is a request of Prairie Village police for safety and traffic reasons. To enter the north parking lot, you will need to turn onto 66th Street and enter the lot from the 66th Street entrance. During normal business hours, unless we have a big memorial service or a big community event, the north parking lot Mission Road entrance will be open.

New Location for the Village Cup

The new café bistro location is flooded with natural light and allows views to both the outdoor courtyard and Mission Road. Adjacent to the new Welcome Center, this space has seating of all types and is just one of the many spaces that encourage conversation and connection. The outdoor courtyard provided separation from the existing building and allowed us to preserve the windows into the existing Sanctuary.

The Cup will continue to provide the same coffee and espresso drinks, smoothies and frappes, hot and iced teas. They are expanding the pastry selection, including gluten-free options.

The Village Cup's current location will close at the end of business today. The Cup will be closed all next week and will reopen in its new location in the Welcome Center next Sunday, March 13.

Come enjoy the NEW Cup experience!

SERMON SERIES

Treasure in Clay Jars

The Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians in Corinth that the Gospel Ministry is a “treasure we hold in clay jars.” This is a metaphor that resonates because we all know how fragile faith can be. We know how fragile Christians can be. One of the wonders of grace is that God continues to be found among the weak and fragile of faith. God’s treasure is carried in clay jars, meaning God’s beauty can show up in our brokenness. It’s good news. We hope you will join us to hear it.
