

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

April 22, 2018 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

It's a strange story. Jesus turns over tables and chases folks away from the temple. He condemned them for making God's house a den of robbers. His actions frightened some but proved to be magnetic for others. The early church couldn't forget this day when Jesus disrupted everything in the temple. But at least they came out better than the fig tree.

Call to Worship

Rev. Zach Walker

Have you heard—God so loves the world!

Yes, we have heard this wonderful news for the world.

Have you heard—as far as the east is from the west,
so far has God removed our transgressions from us.

Yes, we have heard this wonderful news for us.

Have you heard—Christ promised that he will be with you always,
even to the end of the age.

Yes, we have heard. To this gracious God we have come to offer our praise.

*Prayer of Confession

God of grace and glory,

When we have assumed our good is greater than it is,
forgive us.

When we have assumed our sin is something we can handle on our own,
forgive us.

When we have heard your Gospel promise and reduced it to trivialities and slogans,
to self-help froth and minutiae,
forgive us.

Remind us again that resurrection is global good news,
and renew in us your boldest dreams. (Silent prayer)

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Anthem

God Who Touches Earth with Beauty
by Dale E. Ramsey; Village Choir

God, who touches earth with beauty, make my heart anew. With your Spirit recreate me pure and strong and true. Like your springs and running waters, make me crystal pure. Like your rocks of towering grandeur, make me strong and sure. Like your dancing waves of sunlight, make me glad and free. Like the straightness of the pine trees, let me upright be. Like the arching of the heavens, lift my thoughts above. Turn my dreams to noble action, and to ministries of love. God who touches earth with beauty, make my heart anew. Keep me ever, by your Spirit, pure and strong and true. —Mary S. Edgar, 1925

MUSIC NOTES

Today's anthem, "God Who Touches Earth with Beauty," was written by Village Choir Bass Dale Ramsey. Chosen for Earth Day, this anthem celebrates aspects of personality which give us the ability to communicate trust and confidence in the midst of a cynical and difficult world. The text, imaginatively set for choir with an orchestral organ accompaniment, is rich in metaphorical language which celebrates the inspiration we humans can find in God's creation all around us.

The Call to Prayer that we will sing during this sermon series has been composed by Dr. Elisa Bickers to align directly with the sermon of the day. Therefore, the words that we sing together, as we prepare ourselves for prayer, will also direct our souls toward the day's message.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of April 23, 2018)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Tom Are, Jr. and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, April 23

John 14:1-7

Some have read in these words an exclusive message of who is not going to be welcomed into God's kingdom. The intention of the text is just the opposite. Jesus is promising to "prepare a place" for us. When it comes to salvation, Jesus does all the work. He prepares, he comes again; and he takes us to himself. In this word, like all his words, he speaks with love and hope.

Tuesday, April 24

Isaiah 43:1-3

No life is free from suffering. For some it seems to be a constant reality. For others less so, but no one escapes injury to heart and body. Suffering is a reality in this life. The greater question is this: Will suffering define us? God promises to be present during hardship that we might be defined and shaped by his love rather than the most painful of circumstances.

Wednesday, April 25

1 Peter 1:3-9

Peter describes the resurrection not only as what happens to Jesus, but also as the first indication of what happens to us all. Living this faith, in the midst of struggles, shows the hope we hold in Christ.

Thursday, April 26

1 John 1:1-2:2

Sin. We don't use the word as often as we used to. There is no one, however, who escapes sin. We have dreams of who we wish we were; we imagine living as a better person than we are today. When it comes to important relationships, even those we love the most, we sometimes mess things up. And God has dreams for us, too; and God's dreams for us are always big! The good news of 1 John is the promise that anything that stands in the way of our fulfilling God's dreams for our lives can be washed away. What are your dreams for your heart, your life today?

Friday, April 27

1 John 4: 7-12

No one has ever seen God. But John says, if we love one another, that is the closest we will come to seeing God in this world. The love we have for others is a reflection of God's love in our lives.

Saturday, April 28

John 15:1-11

Jesus speaks of pruning branches. It is impossible to take a trip without leaving some things behind. Faith is a trip, a journey. The closer we get to God, the more will be pruned or left behind. It may seem painful along the way, but the pruning leads to greater life.

Major changes to our tax rules were enacted in late 2017 and may have an impact on your charitable gift income tax deduction for 2018 and beyond. If you are 70 ½ and have retirement distributions, we'll talk about why making your charitable contribution directly to the charity from your IRA may be even more advantageous for you after tax reform. We will also talk about why tax reform may affect your tax deduction from your gift, and ways to maximize the tax benefit of your gift. If you have other questions about the new tax laws, bring those too!

Village Elder Judy Frame Wiseman is a CPA, tax lawyer and teaching professor at UMKC School of Law.

UPCOMING SERMON SERIES

Curate Your Heart

Some have said we are defined by our work. Some have said we are what we eat. At the deepest level, we are what we love. We can love all manner of things. We love our families and we love vacation. We love our country and we can love good coffee. It seems that love just happens, that love is something into which we fall. But love is also chosen. It is important to ask ourselves if we love the right things. In this sermon series, we will explore how following the life of Christ is a practice of training our hearts to want what God wants, to love the right things. If we are what we love, then curating our hearts is important work.
