SERVICE OF WORSHIP
April 29, 2018 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY’S SERVICE
Jesus read from the Prophet Isaiah. These ancient words were the best way Jesus knew to describe his life and ministry. He found his “name” written in the scripture. Your name is written in this book as well. Look for it, and the scripture will live in you today.
Call to Worship

Today is the day the Lord has made.

Today we sing praise to God, our maker.

The scriptures come to life as God’s word for this day and every day.

May God’s Word live in us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Hymn, No. 459

O Word of God Incarnate
MUNICH

Offertory

Prayer of Saint Francis
by Allen Pote; Village Choir

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury, thy pardon, Lord. Where there is doubt, let there be faith.
Where there is despair let me bring hope. Where there is darkness, let there be light.
Where there is sadness, let there be joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, and it is in pardoning that we are pardoned. And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

*Response

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Christ, all people here below;
praise Holy Spirit evermore; praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Hallie Hottle and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Psalm 145

I’m often asked, “How do I just start reading the Bible?” When I’ve been out of it for a while, or if I’m just feeling lost in my usual routine, I often begin again in the book of Psalms. Psalm 145 is almost at the end of the book, a song of praise and of hope for a future better than where we stand. It’s here we find the words often in our Assurance of Grace, “The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.” If you’re trying to find a way back in, start here.

Tuesday, May 1

Matthew 6: 7-15

I find both in my own prayer life, and with some of you, that prayer can be a tricky thing. Sometimes it feels too big, as if the words need to be just right. And sometimes it gets too small, too casual, and can become a laundry list of what I want. But this passage assures us, however we pray is always just right. God knows before we speak. Read here, and maybe reconsider your own prayer habits this week.

Wednesday, May 2

Matthew 6: 19-24

Our current sermon series is all about reorienting our hearts towards God. This section of Matthew’s gospel might help here. What do we treasure? What do we focus our eyes on? Which masters are we serving? Read, think and reorient the parts of your heart with answers not of our God.

Thursday, May 3

Matthew 6: 25-34

Funny story - I was once pastoring a group of youth who were highly stressed about an upcoming prom. One youth in particular was having trouble finding a dress she both liked and could afford. While I scrambled to come up with funds to help her enjoy her senior prom, she read the Bible. She stumbled upon this verse, and came flying into my office to tell me she was going to go and have fun, without worrying about her dress. She shouted, “Consider the lilies!” She had a great time at prom, and I learned to “consider the lilies” more thoroughly.

Friday, May 4

Matthew 7: 1-5

Oh, the specks in our neighbors eyes! We live in a day when they are so much easier to see than our own. We might all do well to meditate on this verse today, perhaps while we stare into a mirror. What might we need to reconsider about our own vision?

Saturday, May 5

Psalm 114

We end the week in the same book in which we began. Psalm 114 is a bit peculiar, but the imagery is worth reading again. All the earth responds to God’s people. The sea looks and flees. The hills leap like lambs. What if it’s still true that the earth responds to God’s people? What if the dirt is parted for seeds to grow, by your hands? The water trembles and stops, from your saving? How might your action influence the earth around you, this week?

UPCOMING SERMON SERIES

Curate Your Heart

Some have said we are defined by our work. Some have said we are what we eat. At the deepest level, we are what we love. We can love all manner of things. We love our families and we love vacation. We love our country and we can love good coffee. It seems that love just happens, that love is something into which we fall. But love is also chosen. It is important to ask ourselves if we love the right things. In this sermon series, we will explore how following the life of Christ is a practice of training our hearts to want what God wants, to love the right things. If we are what we love, then curating our hearts is important work.
