

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

May 13, 2018 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

A scribe wanted to know which was the greatest commandment. What matters most to God? Jesus responds: love God with all that you are and love your neighbor. His response does not surprise us, not in the least. But simply knowing the right answer doesn't mean we have obeyed the commandment. When it comes to commandments, it's not just knowledge, but obedience that matters.

Call to Worship

Rev. Len Carrell

When you were baptized, God whispered what was always and already true:

You are my child, whom I love.

For God is like a heavenly parent,

a father who welcomes the prodigal,

a mother who gathers her children.

So, welcome home.

*Prayer of Confession

God of grace,

You call us to love:

to love when we can't help it,

to love when love is hard work,

to love when we don't know how.

In Christ, You have shown us what love looks like.

Draw us closer to You, that we might love as You love,

and that we might love what You love. (Silent prayer)

Nor can the floods drown it.
Set me as a seal upon your heart,
As a seal upon your arm;
For love is as strong as death.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Today we celebrate a wonderful year of Children's Music Ministry with our children singing in the 11 a.m. service. Thank you to our children and their directors — Jenny Hull, Kate Beebe, Rebecca Enslow and Breanne Jeffries — for sharing their musical gifts all year!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of May 14, 2018)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Zach Walker and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, May 14

John 2:1-12

Although Mother's Day is behind us, we can still reflect this interaction between Jesus and his mother. It is Mary who knows her son is able to help. It is Mary who insists Jesus step in. Sometimes people know us better than we know ourselves. Who are the people in your life who know you that well? How trusting are you of their advice, even when you are hesitant to listen?

Tuesday, May 15

Acts 10:44-48

Pentecost is coming in a couple weeks and these verses remind us that God's Spirit cannot be constrained. The Holy Spirit shows up in surprising places; where might the Spirit be at work near you that you have yet to recognize?

Wednesday, May 16

1 John 5:1-6

John puts love in terms of action – specifically, our willingness to obey God's commandments. We don't often think of healthy love as following someone else's orders. But for John, God wants nothing but loving redemption for us and all those around us. God's commandments aim at such redemption. When we can believe in that truth, we find love of God not burdensome, but transforming and restorative.

Thursday, May 17

John 15:12-178

Speaking of commandments, Jesus gives us one here. We also read here a reminder that God first chose us. In the more difficult moments in life we do well to remember that God still chooses us, and chooses us first. Always.

Friday, May 18

Psalms 98

The language in this psalm is so celebratory it makes one think what would happen in order for us to be so joyful? We discover at the end of the psalm that the reason for the author's joy is anticipation of God's coming, and confidence that God's arrival will bring about much-longed-for righteousness. We find comfort that God's arrival will bring fair and equal treatment for all.

Saturday, May 19

Malachi 3:1-4

One of the promises of the Old Testament is that God seeks us, chooses us, and promises to send a messenger to us. What a delight to know a God who keeps promises, who assures us that we are never forgotten, and settles for nothing less than to be with us.

Awe Moment

In March, the deacons of Village Church participated in a volunteer work day. One of the non-profit organizations they volunteered with was Avenue of Life in Kansas City, Kan. This organization supports homeless families. Our deacons painted offices and hallways, sorted clothing in the clothes closet and planted early spring seeds in the raised garden beds. An "Awe" day all around and very appreciated by Avenue of Life.

But the "Awe" day gets even better! While our deacons worked, they heard that the organization's vacuum had been stolen recently, making it a struggle to keep the carpets clean. Unbeknownst to anyone, when two of our deacons left at the end of their shift, they didn't head home but instead went out, purchased two new vacuums and delivered the vacuums to Avenue of Life later that afternoon!

Your generosity brings our mission to life and we are grateful.

CURRENT SERMON SERIES

Curate Your Heart

Some have said we are defined by our work. Some have said we are what we eat. At the deepest level, we are what we love. We can love all manner of things. We love our families and we love vacation. We love our country and we can love good coffee. It seems that love just happens, that love is something into which we fall. But love is also chosen. It is important to ask ourselves if we love the right things. In this sermon series, we will explore how following the life of Christ is a practice of training our hearts to want what God wants, to love the right things. If we are what we love, then curating our hearts is important work.
