GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Call to Worship

Rev. Tom Are, Jr.

O Lord, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth.

From the smallest infant and from the brightest star,
your name is praised.

Before time was born,
and after time takes her last breath,
your name is praised.

We join with the birds of the air and the stars of the night,
in humble amazement that you, the Creator of all,
love us and call us by name.

*Hymn, No.33

Praise the Lord! God's Glories Show
LLANFAIR

*Prayer of Confession

Suffering produces endurance...

Or so the Apostle says.

Yet, we confess,

suffering often produces cynicism,
and cynicism produces hopelessness,
and hopelessness produces fear.

We are not our best selves when we are afraid.

So, forgive us once again.

But more than that,

we know that suffering will come.

When it does,

let it produce in us the endurance and character and hope that bears witness to our trust in you. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 8/8 time. The melody is a simple, rhythmic sequence of notes: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), A4-G4 (beamed eighth notes), F#4 (quarter), E4 (quarter), D4 (half). This sequence is repeated twice on each staff, with the lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia!' written below the notes.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

All the Wonder That Surrounds Us
AR HYD Y NOS

All the wonder that surrounds us springs from God's care:
All that marvels or confounds us, raw, rich or rare;
Touch and texture, sights and voices,
Nature's countless forms and choices:
All for which the heart rejoices springs from God's care.

Every creature, every human lives by God's grace:
Every family, man and woman, culture and race;
Those whom fortune seems to favor,
Those exploited for their labor,
Those who need to know a neighbor live by God's grace.

How can we revere God's goodness meant for all time?
How ensure that each uniqueness keeps in its prime?
How can we revere with pleasure
All God gives for life and leisure,
How preserve each earthly treasure meant for all time?

God has willed that peace and justice walk hand in hand.
These, with love, shall build foundations on which we'll stand:
Love for lover, friend and stranger,
Love defying death and danger,
Love as first born in a manger – heaven close at hand.

*Benediction

*Choral Amen

*Postlude

All who are able may stand*

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of May 23, 2016)

The following are daily Bible readings offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, May 23

2 Timothy 1:3-18

"Do not be ashamed...to rekindle the gift of God." Sometimes we Christians do embarrassing and shameful things. We pass quick judgments, we exclude by address, or race, or sexuality, or gender, or opinion. We easily fall susceptible to a "spirit of cowardice." When we mess up let us not be ashamed to reclaim the powerful gifts of God through love and self-discipline according to God's own purpose and grace for us.

Tuesday, May 24

2 Timothy 2:8-13

When we are faithless, God remains faithful, because God in the act of Jesus Christ cannot deny himself. That divine act in the person of Jesus is God choosing to be connected to us in both life and death. If we live with God as God's own then we must be raised from deadly things to eternal things. This is an unchained gospel promise.

Wednesday, May 25

2 Timothy 2:14-26

In the midst of an election year, how important it is to hear the words "avoid wrangling over words." The focus here is that among folks there will always be differences. But lessons learned in the Christian life are hopefully carried everywhere. We mustn't be bitter and hot-tempered one minute, and then calm, kind and gentle the next. We meet the ideas we disagree on with honest critique, and we meet the person in wholehearted tender love. With God's help, of course.

Thursday, May 26

2 Timothy 3:1-9

Both books of Timothy have a strong emphasis on virtue and ethical living. But the author writes in such a personal way about understanding the coming days of these distressing times. It's as if the people spoken of are in their own community. The author is appealing for two things to happen as a community: honest correction done with a hope for repentance.

Friday, May 27

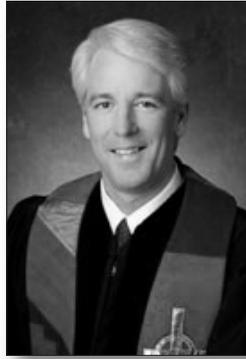

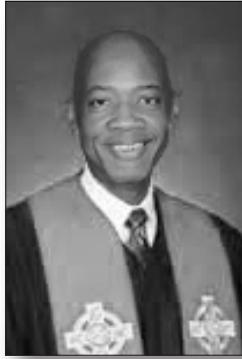

2 Timothy 3:10-4:5

Timothy has done his homework and character study on Paul. Paul is the example that through persecution and suffering God's word continues to teach and equip us to bear new fruits of the spirit. The warning is to beware of "itching ears," of hearing the teachings that "suit our own desires" and not the truth of God. Old ways of thinking should not be confused with good traditions renewed.

Saturday, May 28

2 Timothy 4:6-8

These are very recognizable words of Paul: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." Even in the end Paul faces persecution and death with grace and mercy and the truth of the gospel. We are to imitate Paul's faithfulness. Hold onto the light even though darkness ensues. Hold onto the good news even though our ears are tickled with more pleasing teachings. Stay faithful to the truth at all cost.

A Conversation about Race in America
Led by Rev. Tom Are and Rev. Paul Timothy Roberts
5 p.m. Today in Friendship Hall

Please join Rev. Tom Are and Rev. Paul Timothy Roberts, president of Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary in Atlanta, tonight at 5 p.m. in Friendship Hall, for a conversation about race in the United States.

We have witnessed more overt racial tensions in our nation in recent years. As people of faith, engaging in honest dialogue about these experiences is an effort to know compassion and seek justice.

Rev. Paul Timothy Roberts received his M.Div. from Johnson C. Smith, which is the only PC(USA) seminary that is historically African American. Rev. Roberts has also offered his wisdom and leadership to NEXT Church. NEXT Church is a network of leaders across the PC(USA) who believe the church of the future will be more relational, more diverse, more collaborative, more hopeful and more agile. It provides hopeful space for robust conversations about the theology, culture, and the practice of ministry, to serve as a catalyst for new mission callings, and to support strong leadership in a time of adaptive change.

Visit nextchurch.net for more information.

UPCOMING VILLAGE U CLASSES:

Sign up for Village U classes at villagepres.org. or email marianne.weber@villagepres.org.

FINDING THE FACE OF GOD IN ART - What artists work so hard to do is convey something real and truthful about life and the world we live in, much like the stories of our faith attempt to do. How would our interpretations about art, music and drama change, if we viewed them through a theological lens? For example, how is God viewed differently in the musical Les Miserables, or where do we see the face of God in the artwork of Picasso or Van Gogh? Come, and together let's try to explore art through a theological lens, and perhaps we might just "taste and see that the Lord is good." Taught by Rev. Len Carrell. 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesday, May 25, in Room 126.

ADULT SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES:

The Cloud of Witnesses and Village Forum classes welcomes Dr. David May whose topic will be "Biblical Concepts of . . . Dreams, Laughter, and Money." We will explore the understandings of dreams, humor, and money from the biblical perspective of our ancestors in faith.

Today: "God Laughed": The Biblical Understanding and Use of Humor; and May 29: "Money, Money, Money:" The Economics of Jesus. 9:30 a.m. Rooms 126/127.

Summer Sunday Adult Church School – More Food for the Journey of Faith - Join us this summer every Sunday morning for an adult church school conversation that will further explore the sermon text for the day. The class will meet at 10:45-11:45 a.m. in Room 132. Focusing on the summer preaching theme of "Meals in the Bible," the class will look at the various stories and parables around meals in the gospels of Matthew and Luke. Most classes will be taught by Dr. Rodger Nishioka. The class begins June 12.

SERMON NOTES

SERMON SERIES

The Things to Say When It Matters Most

The First and Second Letters of Timothy are compiled as letters that the apostle Paul wrote when he knew his life was nearing its end. Timothy was a generation younger, and Paul considered him a “son in the faith.” In these few words we find the apostle teaching, offering encouragement and at times he writes what can only be described as deep love. We will spend several weeks “listening in” as the apostle Paul, knowing his time in this life is drawing near, shares “the things to say when it matters most.”
