SERVICE OF WORSHIP

June 20, 2021 • 9 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus says the tiniest of seeds can become the greatest of trees. It's easy for us to focus on the transformation of the seed into the tree and to use it as a metaphor for our own lives. But what Jesus is talking about is the realm of God. God doesn't call us to the work of transformation for transformation's sake. There is more to the story.

God of mystery, God of life,
we imagine that we are capable judges

we separate and categorize;
we mark the performance of others.

We fail to trust Your power, hidden in all things.
We fail to watch for You, working out Your purposes.

Gracious God, hidden and manifest, transform our withered imaginations
until we yield the judgments we trust to a love we cannot control. (Silent prayer)

CURRENT SERMON SERIES

Choose the World You Want to Live In

Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of God, or the kingdom of heaven as Matthew identifies it. It's not heaven; it's life lived genuinely and authentically in this world. But it is also like stepping into a foreign country where the culture and foods and music and expectations are different, because this kingdom is God's, not ours. Jesus showed us what that kingdom looks like by the way he lived his life. But he also taught us about that kingdom by telling particular kinds of stories we call parables. The parables were descriptive, but they were also invitational. Each telling invites us to choose which world we want to live in...the world we have structured, or the kingdom of heaven?
