

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

July 11, 2021 • 9 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

In today's parable, Jesus tells a story where a landowner goes out to hire day-laborers for his vineyard. The issue is, the ones he hired at the beginning of the day receive the same wage as the ones hired at the end of the day. What does the story tell us about ourselves? More importantly, what does this story show us about who God is?

Call to Worship

Rev. Melanie Hardison

The earth is the Lord's, and all that is in it, the world, and all those who live in it.

God has founded the world on abundant seas,

and established it on nourishing rivers.

In gratitude the whole creation worships you;

we sing praises to you, sing praises to your holy name.

*Hymn, No. 625

O Lord My God (How Great Thou Art)

*Prayer of Confession

God, you are God and we are not.

We strive in our everyday lives to feel in control of our world, yet we fail to remember that your ways are not our ways.

You are sovereign, O God.

Remind us, in your mercy, to seek you, to pray without ceasing,

and to study your word and your ways,

because we want our thoughts and actions to be pleasing in your sight and this world to be closer to your promised day. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:

How great thou art! How great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:

How great thou art! How great thou art!

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Affirmation of Faith

We trust in God,

whom Jesus called Abba, Father.

In sovereign love

God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image, male and female, of every race and people,

to live as one community.

But we rebel against God; we hide from our Creator.

Ignoring God's commandments,

we violate the image of God in others and ourselves,
accept lies as truth,
exploit neighbor and nature,
and threaten death to the planet entrusted to our care.

We deserve God's condemnation.

Yet God acts with justice and mercy to redeem creation.

In everlasting love,

the God of Abraham and Sarah chose a covenant people to bless all families of the earth.

Hearing their cry,

God delivered the children of Israel from the house of bondage.

Loving us still,

God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant.

Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child,

like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home,

God is faithful still.

*Benediction

*Benediction Response

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

CURRENT SERMON SERIES

Choose the World You Want to Live In Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of God, or the kingdom of heaven as Matthew identifies it. It's not heaven; it's life lived genuinely and authentically in this world. But it is also like stepping into a foreign country where the culture and foods and music and expectations are different, because this kingdom is God's, not ours. Jesus showed us what that kingdom looks like by the way he lived his life. But he also taught us about that kingdom by telling particular kinds of stories we call parables. The parables were descriptive, but they were also invitational. Each telling invites us to choose which world we want to live in...the world we have structured, or the kingdom of heaven?
