SERVICE OF WORSHIP

July 15, 2018 • 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

They had him right where they wanted him. Jesus had caused too much trouble for them to let him continue, so the Pharisees and Herodians set to him a question in the public square that would undoubtedly alienate a large part of the crowd and sabotage his ministry. But Jesus didn't fall into the trap; in fact, he led them, and leads us, towards freedom in his answer. So today we ask: how do we keep from getting trapped?

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Call to Worship

Rev. Len Carrell

Loving God, we come to You in worship and thanksgiving.

Open us to the possibilities
set before us in Jesus Christ's ministry.

Your wisdom is greater than we can know;
may the truth set us free.

Your love is greater than we can imagine;
kindle our hearts for You and our neighbor.

Fount of wisdom and love, pour out Your Spirit upon us.
As we worship You, show us the way, truth and life.

*Hymn, No. 32

I Sing the Mighty Power of God
ELLACOMBE

*Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, we confess our sin and the sin of this world.
We abuse Your gifts of imagination and freedom,
turning them into bonds of oppression for ourselves and our neighbors.
We create and accept false choices to spare ourselves the trouble of discerning Your will.
We make excuses to stay silent in the face of injustice, so we do not become victims ourselves.
We are trapped by our sin
and shackled in the godless fetters of this world.
Merciful God, have mercy upon us.
Forgive our apathy, fear, and failure of imagination.
In Jesus Christ, continue to show us a better way,
and free us to serve the world in His name. (Silent Reflection)

Lord, have mer - cy up - on us; Christ, have mer - cy up - on us; Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Today we are thankful for the chance to hear the musical gifts of our very own Rev. Len Carrell. Len has a long love of the theater. Since his first role as Charlie, in a church production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," Len has been a student of the human condition and bringing stories to life. Originally from Katy, Texas, Len moved to New York City after being awarded a scholarship to attend The American Musical and Dramatic Academy. After completing his studies, he earned his Actor's Equity card and has performed both in New York and across the country.

Marvie Sneegas has been a long time Village Church and Choir member, offering her gifts frequently for Sunday morning worship and memorials. She is an accomplished accompanist and soprano soloist, having performed all over the world. We are grateful to Marvie for her musical leadership today.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of July 16, 2018)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Andrew Frazier (Village Church member attending Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary) and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, listen to the song, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, July 16

Psalm 88

Unlike other psalms of lament, the psalmist's lament here is anything but formulaic; it is raw, authentic, unrelenting, and supremely faithful. God remains hidden and silent, yet the psalmist continues to cry out, condemning God's absence. Have you felt like the psalmist? Who are today's psalmists? Do we acknowledge their suffering? Or do we, too, remain hidden and silent?

"Hear My Prayer, O Lord" – Henry Purcell

Tuesday, July 17

John 13:1-20

I'm never more like Peter than when I receive a gift. Like the disciple, I usually respond with some mix of confusion, unworthiness, bargaining, refusal, and eventual, begrudging acceptance. Why is it so difficult to receive what is freely given? How can we truly serve if we do not allow others to serve us?

"Love Bade Me Welcome" from Five Mystical Songs – Ralph Vaughan Williams

Wednesday, July 18

Matthew 26:6-13

An unnamed woman performs a deed of purest faith, love, and devotion that is completely misunderstood. Her deed continues to be misunderstood, most notoriously to justify neglect of the poor. Who in your life has acted in a way that was misunderstood, perhaps even misunderstood by you? Whose deeds need to be remembered? Whose stories do we tell?

"The Woman with the Alabaster Box" – Arvo Pärt

Thursday, July 19

James 2:14-18

Sexism. Climate change. Systemic racism. Gun violence. LGBTQ+ discrimination. The stigmatization of mental illness. The list goes on. With so much injustice in the world, it is easy to feel like nothing we do matters, or that others are simply not doing enough. But we cannot discount the value of even the smallest acts of justice and love. "A little something" can add up.

"This is (Not) a Protest Song" – René Marie

Friday, July 20

Romans 8:26-27

Oremus. Let us pray. In our hearts' deepest sighs, beyond word and thought, let us pray.

"Oremus," from Gloria Patri – Urmas Sisask

Saturday, July 21

Romans 8:38-39

If your faith matches Paul's, thanks be to God! If you frequently experience seasons of doubt, you are not alone. If you are lost and suffering, there is a place for you. God's love encompasses all of us no – matter our faith or doubts, our joy or pain – and it will never let us go.

"A Place for You" – Melanie DeMore

PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

NURSES NEEDED AT THE FOOD PANTRY – Village nurses take blood pressure checks every Monday and Tuesday morning, and all-day Thursday, and assist with various health topics, including answering questions about medications, providing nutritional counseling and sharing loving concern. ### About Andrew Frazier Author of this week's Church's Book

Village Church member Andrew Frazier is a candidate for ordained ministry under care of Heartland Presbytery. He is about to begin his senior year at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary as a Master of Divinity student. A Georgia native, he received his Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance from the University of Georgia. Andrew is still discerning his call, but he is interested in a ministry that authentically expresses and lives into faith through the intersection of worship, music, the creative arts, lament, doubt, and hopelessness.

Summer Sermon Series: Great Expectations

What should you expect as a visitor, regular attender, new member or long-time member of Village Presbyterian Church? What does God expect of each of us as followers of Jesus Christ? What does God expect of us all as a faithful congregation?

The Strategic Framework, proposed by the Strategic Planning Team and adopted by the Session in November 2017, identified four expectations for Village Church.

Beginning on the last Sunday of July and continuing for the following three Sundays, the Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka, senior associate pastor, will preach on each of the four expectations.

- July 29 Expecting to be Invitational – Come and See!
- Aug. 5 Expecting to be Magnetic – How to Build an Ark
- Aug. 12 Expecting to be Formational – Body Building
