ABOUT TODAY’S SERVICE

I’m glad we know about Zacchaeus — not because he was short or even because he climbed the tree (although that is fun to imagine). Zacchaeus welcomed Jesus to his dinner table. Jesus said, “Today salvation has come to this house.” But before Jesus arrives, Zacchaeus had been preparing for this day. Not preparing in the sense that he was setting the table or cooking the food. No, Zacchaeus was a man of generosity and justice. I’m glad we know about Zacchaeus because he spent most of his life living toward salvation. It’s a good way to spend the day. Maybe Zacchaeus can inspire us along the way.

Call to Worship

Dr. Rodger Nishioka (9:30 a.m.)
Rev. Zach Walker (11 a.m.)

God of the past,
who whispered in prophets’ ears,
who rescued us from captivity
and led us out of the wilderness:
we are here to thank you.

God of the future,
who promises us a new day,
who will tear down what is broken
and open wide the gates of heaven:
we are here because we trust you.

God of this day,
who is present with us now,
who sets the table
and invites us to join the feast:
we are here to praise you.

*Hymn, No. 505
The Trumpets Sound, the Angels Sing
THE FEAST IS READY

*Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, forgive us.
You teach us to love extravagantly and forgive graciously,
but we add up rights and wrongs.
You teach us to share what we have and play well with others,
but we clench our fists and keep to ourselves.
You teach us to look for the light and believe in a new day,
but we are overwhelmed by the darkness.
We did not set out to live like this, but here we are,
made up of conflicted intentions, hungry hearts, and weary souls.
Thankfully you, O God, are made up of second chances, boundless imagination, and defiant joy.
Make us better than we have proven ourselves to be.
Breathe life into us once again. (Silent prayer)

The following are daily Bible readings offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God’s world.

Monday, Aug. 8
Psalm 13
Of our 150 psalms, one-third of them are psalms of lament. This reminds us that we are not the first to express grief, anger, fear, and confusion to God. God can handle it; in fact, God wants to be in relationship with us — on our best days and on our worst days. And notice this: at the end of each psalm of lament, even still, there is praise to God. Are you in the habit of expressing lament in your prayers? How might this strengthen your prayer life?

Tuesday, Aug. 9
Psalm 23
This is the most familiar psalm of all. We often associate it with funerals, but this psalm also has a word for the living. It is a word of steadfast care in all situations. It is a word of care for all of God’s children, including our enemies. It reassures us that God’s goodness and mercy are with us always. Who in your life needs to be reminded of this today?

Wednesday, Aug. 10
Psalm 22
Having read Psalm 23 yesterday, put it in conversation with Psalm 22 today. Psalm 23 assures us of God’s everlasting presence; Psalm 22 begins with a heartbreaking question: “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” Jesus echoes these words toward the end of his life, but he was not the first to say this. These two psalms, taken together, affirm that in life and in death, when our hearts are broken and when our hearts are full, God is with us. When life feels like Psalm 22, remember that Psalm 23 is coming.

Thursday, Aug. 11
Psalm 119
This is the longest psalm of all — and it details the delight of the law. How often do we give thanks for rules and commandments? However, this psalm reminds us that God gives us guidance in all things, and offers us structure when the world is shaking. When else in your life have you been grateful for the law — of any sort? How does God’s law reflect God’s love?

Friday, Aug. 12
Psalm 136
Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; God’s steadfast love endures forever. Today, create your own psalm using this refrain. List moments when you have trusted — or are trying to trust — that God’s steadfast love endures. It is always the right time to practice thanksgiving.

Saturday, Aug. 13
Psalm 139
This is a much beloved psalm. It reminds us that there is no corner of creation that can keep us hidden from God — not the heights of heaven nor the depths of hell; not as far as the eye can see or the eagle can fly. Not even darkness can keep God away. We have been known from the first moment of our existence. Toward the end, the psalmist prays: “Search me, O God, and know my heart.” What would God find in your heart today? What would you want God to find?

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

VILLAGE CONNECT CONVERSATION GROUPS - Village Connect is a way to strengthen faith through conversations, while making and deepening friendships. Village Church provides trained leaders and a DVD video study developed by Pastor Tom Are for these small groups. The new study for 2016-17 is based on the Gospel of Mark. Our curriculum serves as a springboard for conversations, while relationship building remains a priority. Groups are launched annually in the fall, and subsequent groups may form as needed. Types of groups include: couples, men, women and mixed (men & women). Each individual group decides frequency, location and time for meetings. Village Connect is open to both the congregation and community, so invite your friends and family. To join a Village Connect group, contact Cindy Wilcox at 913-671-2331 or cindy.wilcox@villagepres.org.
MISSION

THE FOOD PANTRY - The Food Pantry’s wish for August is to fill the shelves with all kinds of cereal - and we don’t mind storing what doesn’t fit on the shelves! The Clothes Closet is asking for accessories: purses, belts, hats, umbrellas and socks in good condition. Your donations are always so appreciated.

BACKSNACK – One in five children in Harvesters Food Bank’s service area are at risk of hunger on weekends. To help address that risk, Harvesters created the BackSnack program, which provides bags of assorted food items to low-income children for the weekends. Village Church has been involved as a BackSnack partner, and during the school year our volunteers pack and deliver food weekly to 100 children at Overland Park Elementary and Nieman Elementary. If you are interested in helping to pack and distribute meals to our partner schools during the 2016-17 school year, please call Amy Turpin at 913-908-1138 or amyjturpin@gmail.com; Jane Emley at 913-302-7544 or kuandfm@sbcglobal.net.

BLOOD DRIVE - Village will host a blood drive on Tuesday, Aug. 23, from 11 a.m. - 6 p.m. in Rooms 132 and 133. To make an appointment online visit esavealifenow.org and use sponsor code of “villagepres” or stop by our registration table in Friendship Hall from 9 a.m. - noon on Sundays, Aug. 14 and 21. VILLAGE PIPE ORGAN UPDATE

A team of pipe organ builders from Richards, Fowkes & Company will arrive at Village Church the week of Aug. 28 to install the 12 largest organ pipes and the organ's wind system. The rest of the organ will arrive the weeks of Sept. 18 and Sept. 25. In the all-staff meeting earlier this week, Dr. Elisa Bickers shared details of what she affectionately referred to as Operation I.A.T. (It's About Time). Please stay tuned as we may need your help carrying in the 3,700 pipes uniquely crafted for this spectacular instrument.

For significant periods, the Sanctuary will again be “under construction” as this large instrument is installed. Once installed, it will take as many as nine months to tune and voice.

The organ builders are having an Open House at their warehouse in Ooltewah, Tennessee on Sunday, Aug. 21, to show off Opus 22, our Village pipe organ. Dr. Bickers will be attending that Open House and will have the opportunity to play it before the packing begins for transport to Prairie Village.

Earlier this summer, Dr. Bickers was named a fellow in the American Guild of Organists. We are so fortunate to have one of the finest organists in the country. Soon, we will have one of the finest organs. As a result, our worship will be richly blessed. Village will be a place God’s children will want to sing as we worship the living God.
An Invitation to SING!

Everyone who likes to sing is invited to participate in Summer Choir. The music is fairly easy and fun, and the only rehearsal is at 8:45 a.m. preceding the 9:30 a.m. worship service. Rehearsal is in Room 14 in the lower level of the Sanctuary building.

WE TRIED 5 P.M. SUNDAYS THIS SUMMER, AND YOU LIKED IT!

Due to the overwhelming response to having The Gathering at 5 p.m. on Sundays this summer, the decision has been made to make 5 p.m. Sundays The Gathering's permanent start time.
SUMMER SERMON SERIES

More than a Summer Picnic

Someone once said, in Luke’s Gospel Jesus seems to be at a meal, on his way to a meal, or on his way from a meal. The table is an important place. It is a place of story telling. It is a place of community building. Sometimes the table is the place where we gain a glimpse of the promised day of God. When Jesus is at the table, grace is served; and life is good. When Jesus is at the table, there is always enough; and there is always room for others. This summer we will join Jesus at the table of his ministry. There we will find not simply a summer picnic, but a feast!
