SERVICE OF WORSHIP

September 5, 2021 • 9 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Today we begin a new sermon series about church. More specifically, what is the church for? What does the church mean to you? And what should the church mean to the world? Our denomination has some historic statements called the "Great Ends of the Church" that attempt to speak to these questions. In this series, we will reflect on each of these statements to mine their wisdom for our lives in these days.

Call to Worship

Rev. Sally S. Wright

With all the saints,
through every generation,
we join our voices to declare:

Jesus Christ is Lord.

He has been Lord from the beginning,

he will be Lord at the end.

Even now he is Lord.

Let our mouths proclaim God's praise,
and our lives declare our worship of Jesus the Christ.

O come, let us sing to the Lord;

let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

*Hymn, No. 462

I Love to Tell the Story

*Unison Morning Prayer

Gracious God,

we remember the hope of the prophets,

the song of the angels,

and the good news of a savior who lived and died for us.

We also remember the testimony of your children through the generations, for we are the recipients of a hope that has been given to us.

We have inherited a love that has been poured out on us, and the good news of your redemption has been bestowed upon us.

May we live this day and those to come shaped by this faith. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Sung Response

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me,
and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Six Great Ends of the Church

The "Great Ends of the Church" are a set of six mission statements that define the life and work of the Presbyterian Church (USA). For decades, these axioms have helped establish the course for mission and ministry, and present basic works to our denomination that are the heart of who the church is and what the church is called to do. In celebration of these important and holy duties, and as reminders of the same, Presbyterian Churches across the country created banners to display in their houses of worship. Make sure to visit the Welcome Center to see Village's own banners of "The Six Great Ends of the Church." The First Great End is the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind.

Connection Sunday Next Week

Join us as we kick off the year with Connection Sunday on Sept. 12. As we launch programs and events this year, we'll have special treats to make at home as a family activity or share with a neighbor, activities for kids (9:30 a.m. service), and invitations for you about our events in the coming weeks. Village Church is grateful for you!

Congregational Meeting Sunday, Sept. 19

The Session has called a Congregational Meeting for Sunday, Sept. 19. This meeting will take place at both campuses immediately following the 9:30 a.m. worship service at the Village on Mission Sanctuary, the 10 a.m. service at Village on Antioch and after The Gathering at 5 p.m. at Village on Mission. The purpose of the meeting is to elect new church officers for the positions of elder, elder/trustee and deacon. At-large members of the Nominating Committee will also be elected. Ordination of new church officers will take place in early January 2022.

UPCOMING SERMON SERIES

The Church: An Already/Not Yet People

What is a church good for? Why did God decide the world that God loves needs a church? Well, there are several responses to such questions. A few centuries ago, the Presbyterian Church identified some grand purposes to describe what the church is for. These purposes are called the “Great Ends of the Church.” There are six Great Ends. They describe the life of the church as it is, at least to a point. But they also are aspirational and describe what the church should be. In that sense, they describe the church as it already is, while at the same time, they describe the church as it has yet to become. Rev. Are explores each of these ancient statements. They are hopeful. They are challenging. They are relevant, perhaps more relevant today than they were when they were drafted centuries ago. Of course, these were written in language that sounds more like Thomas Jefferson than the way we talk today; but there is still wisdom to be found in these old words. And when the church chooses to live toward these Great Ends or Great Purposes, there may be no other place you would rather be in/among these already/not yet people.
