SERVICE OF WORSHIP

September 19, 2021 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

The maintenance of divine worship is the third great end of the church. Worship can seem like an experience, like the satisfaction of sharing a good meal, or the relaxation of taking a walk through a park, or even the rush of riding a roller coaster. But experiences don't require maintenance. This great end teaches us that worship, even more than an experience, is a practice, a discipline, an act of reminding ourselves what life is for.

TODAY'S VILLAGE CHOIR GOSPEL ANTHEM

Keith Hampton's "Praise His Holy Name" was chosen for today's third "Great Ends of the Church" banner, which displays arms raised in praise and thanksgiving. The text of the anthem begins, "Sing till the power of the Lord come down," and continues with verses giving thanks for God's amazing grace, and also our individual responsibility to carry the faith forward. We hope you are inspired by this anthem of praise!

Welcoming Langston Hemenway and the Village Brass Ensemble

We are thrilled to welcome the Village Brass Ensemble and their new director, Dr. Langston Hemenway, to worship today. Dr. Hemenway is the conductor of the Kansas City Wind Symphony, which rehearses and performs frequently at its home Village Church. Langston is also associate director of music and director of instrumental studies at William Jewell College and conductor of the Liberty Symphony Orchestra. If you or someone you know would like to play with the Village Brass Ensemble, contact Langston at langston.hemenway@villagepres.org.

Six Great Ends of the Church

The "Great Ends of the Church" are a set of six mission statements that define the life and work of the Presbyterian Church (USA). For decades, these axioms have helped establish the course for mission and ministry, and present basic works to our denomination that are the heart of who the church is and what the church is called to do. In celebration of these important and holy duties, and as reminders of the same, Presbyterian churches across the country created banners to display in their houses of worship. Make sure to visit the Welcome Center to see Village's own banners of "The Six Great Ends of the Church." The Third Great End is the maintenance of divine worship.

Congregational Meeting Today

The Session has called a Congregational Meeting today. This meeting will take place at both campuses immediately following the 9:30 a.m. worship services. The purpose of the meeting is to elect new church officers for the positions of elder, elder/trustee and deacon.

Food Truck Festival Today

Come Claim Stillness and Peace at Taizé

You are invited to a service of Taizé at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 21, in the Village on Mission Sanctuary. Here we will sing, pray, be still and celebrate the Lord's Supper. During the push and pull of busy and stressful days, this time of quiet will be a balm to your soul! Contact Dr. Elisa Bickers at elisa.bickers@villagepres.org if you have any questions.

CURRENT SERMON SERIES

The Church: An Already/Not Yet People

What is a church good for? Why did God decide the world that God loves needs a church? Well, there are several responses to such questions. A few centuries ago, the Presbyterian Church identified some grand purposes to describe what the church is for. These purposes are called the "Great Ends of the Church." There are six Great Ends. They describe the life of the church as it is, at least to a point. But they also are aspirational and describe what the church should be. In that sense, they describe the church as it already is, while at the same time, they describe the church as it has yet to become. Rev. Are explores each of these ancient statements. They are hopeful. They are challenging. They are relevant, perhaps more relevant today than they were when they were drafted centuries ago. Of course, these were written in language that sounds more like Thomas Jefferson than the way we talk today; but there is still wisdom to be found in these old words. And when the church chooses to live toward these Great Ends or Great Purposes, there may be no other place you would rather be in/among these already/not yet people.
