

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

October 24, 2021 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Today and next Sunday we will reflect on the changing nature of our planet as a result of climate change. The news is challenging, even threatening and we see the consequences daily. But there is good news, too.

The God who fashioned galaxies and breathed the breath of life into our lungs,

and poured love into our souls—

It is this God who calls us to worship,
and we come with joy,
for in the presence of God we are at home.

*Hymn, No. 33

Praise the Lord! God's Glories Show

*Prayer of Confession

God of mercy and grace,
In these past few days,
if there was a choice we made,
or an action we failed to take,
that disappointed you,
we are sorry.

We want to be faithful.

So, once again, we pray that you lead us in right paths. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Hymn

The Earth Sings

The earth intones the will of God in sounds we scarcely hear.

Yet silent beauties fill the air and tune the list'ning ear.

From ev'ry stream and forest glen,
from mountain peak and vale –

The holy garb of nature's realms is struggling to prevail.

The living seas desire to be a canticle sublime.

From splashing surf and soaring spray
all sounding the Divine.

From gentle lapping of the waves to crashing breakers high –

Yet, mortals shun the care of shores and mar the maritime.

The verdant hills and mountains high remind us of God's throne.

They shelter creatures from the clime and shield their lofty homes.

The source of glacier's bluish glaze;
of splendors yet unseen.

Yet, waters fresh have disappeared,
the atmosphere unclean.

The future splendor of the earth to sons and daughters give.

Renewing land and sea and air –
we now commit to live.

The shimm'ring stars and rainbow hues,
refreshing morning dew;

Jehovah's hope, our morning light –
God's Spirit shines anew.

Offertory Anthem

Creation of Peace
Mark Miller; Village Choirs

*Sung Response

For the fruit of all creation, thanks be to God.
For the gifts to every nation, thanks be to God.
For the plowing, sowing, reaping, silent growth while we are sleeping, future needs in earth's safekeeping, thanks be to God.

*Prayer of Dedication

*Hymn, No. 329

God Is Our Refuge and Our Strength

*Benediction

*Benediction Response

This is our call: to live what we believe and tend this earth, the only home we know.
And by God's grace our children will receive a world revived, a greener place to grow.

*Postlude

Postlude on "Llanfair"
by Robert J. Powell

All who are able may stand*

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Today's middle hymn, The Earth Sings, was written by Village Church and Village Choir member Dr. Ron Witzke. Ron was inspired to write special hymns for during his summers attending Colorado Springs Presbyterian Church, where their senior music minister wrote hymns for the sermons and series. Ron recently retired from the voice faculty of William Jewell College and is still very involved there with their students and productions. He sings in the Village choirs and serves on the Liturgical Arts Committee.

CURRENT SERMON SERIES

The World God So Loved is This World

We see the consequences every day—fires, floods, droughts, storms. The financial and human costs continue to rise as homes are destroyed, lives are lost, and millions are made refugees. When the conditions for human life on the planet are stressed, it becomes a matter of conscience for people of faith, who are called to love the neighbor. There is a lot of bad news, and the science indicates that things will get worse before they get better. But we live in hope, because the earth is a great place to live, and it is a world that God loves.
