

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

October 8, 2017 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

John the Baptist is in jail. It's not what he expected as the forerunner for the Messiah. John was faithful and courageous, but it turns out that John finds Jesus to be a bit disappointing. He expected more from Jesus, or at least expected him to live differently. Have you ever found Jesus to be disappointing? If so, you wouldn't be alone.

Call to Worship (from Psalm 46)	Rev. Jenny McDevitt

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name . . .

Therefore we will not fear,

though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in tumult.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done . . .

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God.

God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved.

God will help it when the morning dawns.

On earth as it is in heaven . . .

The nations are in an uproar; its kingdoms totter.

The Lord utters his voice and the earth melts.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil . . .

Come, behold the works of the Lord.

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;

he breaks the bow and shatters the spear;

he burns the shields with refining fire.

"Be still," the Lord says. "Be still, and know that I am God."

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever.

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,

The brokenness of this world is sometimes too much for us.

Out of our desire for self-protection and our need for control, we have numbed ourselves against our neighbor's pain.

In doing this, we have also numbed ourselves against your promise.

We are no longer surprised by violence and terror and hate.

We feel weary and helpless and hopeless,

so we have bowed our heads and clasped our own hands together.

In doing this, we have not seen your reflection in the eyes of others and we have struggled to reach out with your love.

We say, "Thy will be done," but our voices shake.

Forgive us, we pray. (Silent prayer)

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of October 8, 2017)

The following are daily Bible readings offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Oct. 9

2 Corinthians 1: 1-14

The Apostle Paul's second letter to Corinth acts as a reassurance and a testimony of God's love and the transformative power of faith. Paul's personal story of suffering hardships and enduring great pressure (v. 8-11) resonates in our lives today, as all of us encounter struggles and seek comfort. What suffering have you experienced this week? What comforts? How can you reach out in comfort to others?

Tuesday, Oct. 10

2 Corinthians 2: 5-11

Grief and sorrow have the ability to become utterly overwhelming when paired with deep guilt. Offering forgiveness to the guilty — even if they don't deserve it, or haven't earned it, or don't know how to accept it — heals communities and reconciles lives. When is it hardest for you to forgive? Offer a prayer of healing and forgiveness to God today.

Wednesday, Oct. 11

2 Corinthians 2: 12-17

Reflect God's love in all that you do. In this passage, Paul refers to the "aroma of Christ." Just like a nice scent, we, by our lives and our words, spread the love of God to everyone we meet in every place we go. How will you spread God's love today?

Thursday, Oct. 12

2 Corinthians 4: 1-15

Christ lives in us, and we are dwelling places of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, we have sacred work to do in the world. Write a prayer of thanksgiving that illuminates that way in which God is working through you this week. Offer gratitude for the light in the darkness, the surrender of power, and the abundant grace found in faith.

Friday, Oct. 13

2 Corinthians 4:16-5:10

We live by faith, not by sight. We fix our eyes on what is unseen rather than what is seen. These are nice sentiments, but what does it really look like to focus wholly on the eternal? How does it feel to put so much faith into things unseen? Scary? Exciting?

Saturday, Oct. 14

2 Corinthians 5: 11-21

The world desperately needs reconciliation. In communities dealing with violence in the United States, tension-filled streets in the Middle East, and divided families in Central America, God calls us to be reconcilers and messengers of peace. Look through the daily newspaper, and pray for the areas of the world that need God's healing power of reconciliation.

An Ordination Invitation

You are invited to celebrate the ordination of Sarah Are, by joining us in a worship service to celebrate Sarah's ordination as a Minister of Word and Sacrament at 7 p.m. this Tuesday, Oct. 10, in the Village on Mission Sanctuary.

Sarah is the daughter of Tom and Carol Are, and a child of Village Church. She is also the daughter of six generations of Presbyterian pastors. Sarah graduated from Columbia Theological Seminary in May, and has accepted a position as the designated associate pastor for youth and young adults at Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church in Dallas. Thus, Sarah is finally within driving distance to KC—a fact her entire family celebrated.

In Sarah's words, "I would not be who I am without Village. This church has loved me unconditionally, encouraged me endlessly, and supported throughout my time in seminary. I learned how to sing in the youth choir, I learned how to be a leader in the youth group, I learned how to pray in these pews, and I learned what the community of saints looks like from this church. There is simply no other place I would want to be ordained than at Village Presbyterian Church, for Village will always be home."

SERMON SERIES

It Takes a Village

We sometimes assume that Jesus, by the time he was old enough to talk, was fully aware that he was the Christ and knew just how to live as God's son in human history. But there are moments in the Gospel story when Jesus encountered others who seemed to teach him who he was or at least how to live as God's son. It's not too much to say that in some of these encounters Jesus learned how to be Jesus. There is not a one of us who comes to a life of faith and faithfulness without the mentoring of others. That seems to be true for Jesus as well. Perhaps we can learn from those who taught him.
