SERVICE OF WORSHIP

October 21, 2018 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

For a second Sunday we linger with Paul's words in the first letter that he wrote to the church. Last Sunday we reflected on a theological value for us at Village: that our ministry be incarnational. We continue this conversation exploring a second theological value: that our ministry be relational. Our practice of relationship is informed by Paul's gratitude for the church's "labor of love."

MUSIC NOTES

Today's Village Choir anthem, "Beatitudes: The Peacemakers," is the title selection for our 3 p.m. Nov. 4 concert, The Peacemakers. Much more than a concert, the event will benefit Frontera de Cristo, a U.S./Mexico border ministry of the Presbyterian Church. It will also feature several of Patrick Hawes' "Beatitudes," woven together with the poetry of Arlin Buyert. The second half of the concert will look south of our border to Argentina for Missa Latina, an energetic setting of the Latin mass for choir, soloists, accordion, violin, bass and Latin percussion.

Today's sung response to the scripture is a text that was just commissioned specifically for Village. A brand new, four stanza text has been written by renowned hymn writer John Thornburg to reflect the current sermon series, "Living Toward God's Promised Day." Each week we will sing the stanza written to pair with that week's topic, concluding with a singing of the complete hymn on Nov. 4. You will notice that we are singing the new text to a familiar tune (SLANE) – that has the practical purpose of being easier to sing, but is also meant to conjure up the concepts from the more familiar text, "Be Thou My Vision."

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of October 22, 2018)

The following daily Bible readings were written by the Rev. Dr. Brandon Frick and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Oct. 22

Matthew 2:1-10

The birth of Jesus Christ is, by any measure, a central event in the Christian faith. Track the role of the star in the Magi's journey to the manger. What does its role in the story tell us about the Creator and creation?

Tuesday, Oct. 23

Luke 8:4-9

The natural world figures prominently in Jesus' parables. In this one there are seed, earth, rocks, rain, vegetation and birds. Why do you think Jesus spoke using these types of characters in his parables? What might it tell us about the natural world's ability to convey supernatural truths?

Wednesday, Oct. 24

Luke 8:22-25

"Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water?" No, really, what is this text trying to tell us about Jesus in his calming of the storm?

Thursday, Oct. 25

Matthew 27:45-51

As the Son of God dies on the cross, we hear him cry out in pain and know that his disciples were also there, pained as they watched his life leave him. But, they're not the only ones reacting to his crucifixion. What happens to creation? Now revisit Luke 8:22-25, and again what are the gospel writers trying to tell us about Jesus Christ?

Friday, Oct. 26

John 1:1-13

John 1 juxtaposes two astonishing claims. Jesus is 1) Creator and 2) a creature. What does this claim say about a God who made "all things" and yet is willing to enter that creation and know the limits and difficulty that come with it?

Saturday, Oct. 27

Col. 1:15-20 Creator

Check out this incredible description of Jesus Christ! A really important phrase in this text is "all things." How does Jesus Christ, Creator and Redeemer, interact with "all things?"

NEW SERMON SERIES

Living Toward God's Promised Day

William Faulkner once wrote, "The past is never dead. It's not even past." There is wisdom in these words, as our yesterdays show up in both predictable and unexpected ways. Nevertheless, the Christian faith provides a different way to look at our day. As Christians we are not primarily defined by our past, but by a future promised day. It is a day when God makes right that which we cannot heal. Of course, we only see glimpses of it in our lives, but it is a day that is trustworthy and true. This is why Rev. Tom Are's last words to you each Sunday are "live toward God's promised day." For we are not defined by our yesterdays, not even our grand ones, but by a tomorrow we have yet to see.
