

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

October 30, 2016 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Each Sunday we are sent out into the world with a benediction. It is a mixture of ancient words and contemporary thought. It is a word that reminds us who we are. It is a word that reminds us that we are called. Mostly, the benediction is a blessing. In this sermon series, "God's Beloved World," we will reflect on the weekly benediction.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Petite Scherzo
by Franz Schubert

Call to Worship

Dr. Rodger Nishioka

These are the words that have called us here:

Come.

See.

Listen.

Taste.

Rest.

Love.

These are the words that will send out us from here:

Go.

Make.

Strive.

Remember.

Live.

Love.

Words have the power to change us.

May God open our ears and awaken our hearts.

*Hymn, No.366

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling
HYFRYDOL

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,

Could the Gospel really be true? Do you love us that much?

We want to believe it.

But we know the truth of ourselves, and you do, too.

You know that we can be fragile,

but that we can also stomp all over others.

We read and study your Word,

but we so often say the wrong things.

We are so afraid of making mistakes,

that we sometimes play it too safe.

Forgive us for all of our contradictions and complexities.

Speak to us your words of grace until they settle in our soul. (Silent prayer)

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Call to Prayer

God, be the love to search and keep me; God, be the prayer to move my voice;

God, be the strength to now up-hold me: O Christ, sur-round me; O Christ, sur-round me.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Anthem

Teach Me To Fly

music: Mark A. Miller; More Love Chorale; Carol Are, soprano (8 a.m.)

Welcome

music: Mark A. Miller and Laurie Zelman; Alegría (9:30 a.m.)

O Nata Lux

music: Tom Porter; Village Voices (11 a.m.)

O born light of light, Jesus, redeemer of the world.

Mercifully consider worthy the prayers and praises that are offered.

You who in flesh were once clothed to return dignity to the lost,

Grant us to be made members of your holy body.

Prayer for Illumination

Dee Couch (8 a.m.); Fred Logan (9:30 a.m.); Janice Gill (11 a.m.)

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*Hymn, No. 693

Though I May Speak

GIFT OF LOVE

Offertory

Praise The Lord

music: George Frederic Handel; arr. Hal Hopson; Village Choir

*Response

For thyself, best gift divine, to the world so freely given;
For that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

*Prayer of Dedication

Generous God, we give you our thanks indeed.
All that we have, comes from you.
All the love we know, comes from you.
Take the gifts we offer back to you now
and use them for your holy work in this beautiful but broken world.
We are creatures of your own making,
and you have entrusted us with sacred responsibility.
So make us instruments of your peace,
witnesses of your presence,
and reminders of your grace.
We ask this in the name of your son, Jesus Christ, who redeems us all. Amen.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of October 31, 2016)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Dr. Rodger Nishioka and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, Oct. 31

Psalm 142

The voice of the Psalmist is a lonely and bleak one. The truth of our lives is that each of us will find ourself in a similar moment when it feels as if life is crashing down around us. Being a follower of Jesus Christ does not guarantee that our lives will be easy. This Psalm is proof of that. What our faith does provide for us is a way to survive. Cry out to God who is our refuge even in the most desperate of times. The good news is this – that God receives our cries and responds out of His great love!

All Saints Day, Nov. 1

Ephesians 1:11-23

Today is All Saints Day—a day when the church remembers all the saints, past and present and those who are to come. Paul writes to the saints in Ephesus, giving thanks for them and reminding them of what is to come as a result of their faithfulness. On this day, take time to remember and give thanks for the saints in your life – children, youth, young adults, and adults—those who are among you and those who are now in heaven.

Wednesday, Nov. 2

Psalm 50

In the story of creation in Genesis, God spoke and there was light. In this Psalm, the writer reminds us that God is not silent. God, creator of the universe who spoke all creation into being, is still speaking today. God speaks even in rebuke for those people who are disobeying God. And God invites all to speak to God for God is listening. What will you say to God today?

Thursday, Nov. 3

Acts 22:22-23:11

The apostle Paul is in trouble...again. This time he is before the Roman tribunal in Jerusalem. He is in trouble for preaching about Jesus Christ. He is brought up on charges and bound and his life is being threatened. But Paul appears to keep calm even though his very life is in danger. In this charged situation, Jesus appears to him and tells him to "keep up your courage." Remember that in all ways, Jesus is with us and calls us to courage!

Friday, Nov. 4

Psalm 17:1-9

It is a lifelong lesson to learn that some things are simply not within our control. We cannot control the actions of others. We cannot control the fears or the anger of others. All we can control is what we do and how we respond. For some of us, it is too easy to forget this and to be drawn into trying to fix every problem. Rightly, the Psalmist asks God to show His steadfast love and sustaining care and to uphold us and protect us in times of struggle. While we cannot be in complete control, we can trust that God is!

Saturday, Nov. 5

Psalm 145:1-5, 17-21

Last week I was in our national conference center in Montreat, in the mountains of Western North Carolina. I arrived at night and woke the next morning to a beautiful blue sky and the surrounding mountains bursting with gold and red and orange and yellow leaves. What a glorious site! I echoed the words of the Psalmist that the Lord IS great and greatly to be praised! I could not help but breathe deeply the fresh mountain air and sing praises to God. The Psalmist reminds us that God is near to all who call on Him. Trust that the Lord is near to you today as you praise God for His wondrous works!

Every year we send care packages to our graduated youth in college or wherever they may be. Just drop it off at the front desk and label it "Youth Department." We know our former youth will really appreciate it!

2016 Meneilly Conference
“Forming Faith Foundations for Young People”
Presented by Rev. Dr. Kenda Creasy Dean
9 a.m.-12:15 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 5, in Friendship Hall

Free and open to all. Enjoy coffee, pastries and fruit starting at 9 a.m.

9:30 a.m. Epic Church: Growing Young in the Age of Benign Whatever-ism

Game scientist Jane McGonigal argues that young people steeped in video culture becomes virtuosos of hope—in ways the world desperately needs. Why are young people more likely to find hope in a video game than in the church? Twelve years into the ongoing National Study of Youth and Religion, we have some clues—now backed by research from the Fuller Youth Institute about what does (and doesn't) seem to help churches “grow younger.”

10:45 a.m. “How are the Children?” Practices for Parents and Congregations that Lay a Foundation for Young Faith

What happens to young people’s faith after high school? Faithful young adults seem to have shared many similar assets during the high school years. Taking our cues from the second wave of research from the National Study of Youth and Religion, we will explore how parents and congregations can share faith with young people in ways that feel honest to where they are spiritually, and help youth form foundations for a faith of their own.

Dr. Dean is the Mary D. Synnott Professor of Youth, Church and Culture at Princeton Theological Seminary where she works closely with the Institute for Youth Ministry. She is the author of numerous books on youth and the church and embodies that rare combination of thoughtful theologian and helpful practitioner. She is a dynamic and inspiring teacher and lives out her passion for young people and the church.

Register online at villagepres.org/meneilly-conference.

Trick Or Treat In The Village Cup Coffee Shop

Bring the kids to trick or treat in the Village Cup from 1-7:30 p.m. tomorrow, Oct. 31.

Gifts of Stock and Securities

At year end, many of you make a gift to Village Church through a transfer of stocks and securities. It is very helpful to know about stock transfers in advance, and to know how to credit the gift. We have an account set up to receive these transfers. For this information and to share with us your plan to transfer stock, please give Molly Sirridge, 913-671-2325, or Kathy Lueckert, 913-671-2365 a call.

NEW SERMON SERIES

God's Beloved World - It is Beautiful, but Broken

This is God's world. But the ways of this world are not as God intends. Anyone can see that and many complain about the way things are; but faith invites us to hold a new perspective. Even when broken, the world is beautiful. It's not just the color of nature or the sounds that fill the air; it is the beauty of human compassion, genuine friendship, and humble service. The broken world is still beautiful. And this world is loved by God, so it should be loved by us. Such love is the currency of Christian living.
