

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

November 18, 2018 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

We all “miss it” sometimes. We have a tendency to break things... promises, relationships and sometimes our commitment to God. When we mess things up, sometimes we are able to put them back together. When we can, we probably should do just that. But sometimes, no matter how hard we might try, we just can't make things right again. In that moment, there is no hope, unless grace is real and generous.

Call to Worship

Rev. Hallie Hottle

Fairest Lord Jesus, ruler of the nations,

O Thou of God to earth come down.

We could not command You to come to us;

No, it was love that drew You to us.

It was You who loved us first.

Your unending love is the reason we lift our voices in praise.

Fairest Lord Jesus
CRUSADERS' HYMN

*Prayer of Confession

God of Mercy,

sometimes our sin is evident in our thoughts.

Sometimes it is our emotions that we struggle with the most.

But of greater consequence is what we do:

so, for the things we have done that we should not have done,

and for the things we have left undone that we should have done,

forgive us. (Silent Prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response (from Hymn, No. 839)

This is my story; this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.

MUSIC NOTE

Today we give thanks for the youngest members of our church family as they share their gift of song with us. It's not too late to join the Morning Stars choirs as we prepare to sing on Christmas Eve. Please email Jenny Hull, children's music coordinator, at jenny.hull@villagepres.org for more information.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of November 19, 2018)

The following daily Bible readings were written by the Rev. Tom Are, Jr. and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Nov. 19

Matthew 16:13-20

Who is he? Jesus is not asking a fill in the blank theological quiz. Jesus knows that our beliefs show up in our behavior. Who we believe him to be influences how we live.

Tuesday, Nov. 20

Matthew 11:28-30

The yoke Jesus speaks of is his life. His life is not easy because he is always moving toward the cross. And yet, the load of living the life God calls us to live is a lifted burden, because God shares that burden with us.

Wednesday, Nov. 21

Psalms 91

It sounds like the scripture promises that nothing bad will happen to those who believe. That would be nice, but it doesn't fit with our experience. We know that even the most faithful suffer. And yet, trusting in God changes the perspective and power of suffering in our lives. No matter how fragile life becomes, there is a "refuge and fortress" that is trustworthy.

Thursday, Nov. 22 - Happy Thanksgiving!

Matthew 12:1-14

The people are questioning Jesus' practice of the faith. He didn't seem to be following the rules. Jesus responds by showing that the word of God is always good news. If we follow our faith and it does not bring life to us and others, we are likely to be missing something.

Friday, Nov. 23

Micah 6:1-8

This text begins with God reminding his people how God has already blessed them. The prophet reminds them of the Exodus. Then the prophet says that God wants his people to respond. And with what shall we come before the Lord? Justice, kindness, humility in the presence of God.

Saturday, Nov. 24

Luke 11:1-13

"Teach us to pray," the disciples asked. Jesus says, pray for the kingdom of God. Kingdom of God or reign of God or promised day of God is the language Jesus used to describe the life God intends for the whole world. Don't be afraid to pray big prayers, he seems to suggest. What is your biggest hope? Pray about that. And be persistent in your prayers.

We can continue God's work because of your generosity. Please consider making your 2019 commitment. Complete your commitment form and mail to the church or go online to villagepres.org/giving and click "Continue to Commitment Form," complete and click "send."

SERMON SERIES

Getting Real

We, at Village, are good people. We really are. But we are not perfect. There would not be a one of us who has escaped feelings from time to time of guilt or disappointment. So, how do we deal with failure? How do we deal with burdens that can weigh heavy at times? In this sermon series we will explore the realities of sin, grace and what to do with a second chance, or third, or however many we might need.
