SERVICE OF WORSHIP

November 19, 2017 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

The story of Jesus and the children is beautiful and instructive. Told in three of the four gospels, parents are bringing children to Jesus so that he might lay his hands on them and bless them, but Jesus' disciples speak sternly to these parents and try to turn them away. They see blessing children as a waste of time. Jesus corrects his followers and tells them to let the children come to him because the kingdom of God belongs to children. It is a unique idea in the gospels – this notion that the kingdom of God belongs to anyone, let alone children. Theologian Robin Maas argues that only children are named as possessing God's kingdom. She believes this is because children seem to understand God in a special way.

SERMON NOTES

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of November 20, 2017)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Dr. Rodger Nishioka and are offered for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith, pray for Village Church, pray for the community around you, and pray for all of creation.

Monday, Nov. 20

1 Chronicles 16:16-34

David has established himself in Jerusalem and after the ark of the covenant, the holiest object for the Hebrew people, is brought to Jerusalem, he sings this marvelous song of thanksgiving. David's first act after coming to Jerusalem is to make a place for the ark of the covenant, the sign of God's faithfulness. His second act is to sing a song of thanksgiving. Surely we must follow in the same way. Once we recognize God's faithfulness, we must sing a song of thankfulness!

Tuesday, Nov. 21

Psalms 107

As in other songs of David, this psalm echoes the phrases of his song of thanksgiving from our reading in 1 Chronicles. This Psalm calls us to give thanks to the Lord for he is good for his steadfast love endures forever. This phrase appears numerous times in the Hebrew scriptures and especially in the Psalms. Psalm 107 is a recitation of how God has been faithful. Remember this phrase: "O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever." Recite it throughout your day today.

Wednesday, Nov. 22

Matthew 26:26-30

Matthew's gospel records the Lord's supper in a similar fashion to Mark and Luke. All three of the gospels tell us that Jesus gave thanks to God before sharing the cup with his disciples. As followers of Jesus, we give thanks in a similar way. Our giving thanks to God helps us remember that all gifts come from God and we are to respond to God with gratitude. A word of thanks before a meal does not have to be grand and should not be officious. The most important thing is that it be genuine and focus on God rather than ourselves.

Thursday, Nov. 23

Philippians 1:3-11

In the opening of Paul's beautiful letter to the believers in Philippi, he tells them how he thanks God every time he remembers them, constantly praying with joy in every one of his prayers for all of them. Imagine how the Christians in Philippi felt when they first heard this. The Apostle Paul is thanking God every time he remembers them, and he is constantly praying for them. On this day of Thanksgiving, give thanks as you remember faithful friends and family and pray for them with joy. Then tell them that you are so thankful for them, so they may share in your joy.

Friday, Nov. 24

1 Thessalonians 5:12-24

These are instructions for how to live as members of a Christian community, and we would do well to live them. The verbs are instructive: respect, esteem, be at peace, admonish, encourage, help, be patient, pray and...give thanks in all circumstances. This call to give thanks in all circumstances does not mean that all circumstances will be easy or even good. Rather, it calls us to keep the focus on God even when we are struggling. This is a radical way of living, and it sets us apart as a witness to how the Holy Spirit is at work in us, even when we are hurting. Remember that God is able to do this in us so pray for that God-given ability to give thanks in all times.

Saturday, Nov. 25

Revelation 7:9-17

The Revelation to John that is recorded in this last book of the Bible includes this incredible vision of a multitude from every nation on the earth. They stand before God who is seated on the throne and before the lamb, Jesus Christ. Together with the angels and heavenly beings, they sing praises and glorify God and Jesus giving thanks for their salvation. As you are able, look to heaven and lift up your hands and say out loud, "Thank you, God!" What a marvelous way to end our week of thanksgiving!

UPCOMING WORSHIP

Nov. 19     Who is the Greatest in God's Kingdom?
Nov. 26     Thank You

A Stranger Came to Town

This is a season of tradition. We read the same stories. We sing the same hymns. We light the purple candles. We kneel at the manger and we have learned the angels songs by heart. We walk this same journey because the love that fashioned the universe and its billions of galaxies has chosen, in grace, to take on skin and walk where we walk. The Word became flesh. He napped in a manger. He spoke with an accent, and had favorite foods and loved a good story. He was one of us. But he was also a stranger. His heart was bigger, his prayers were deeper, his spirit was freer. This strangeness was unsettling to some. It was magnetic to others. They discovered, and we continue to discover, that this stranger not only reveals truth about God, but he reveals the truth about us. A stranger came to town and sends us on a journey to find our way home.

Dec. 3        This is the Stranger's Town
Dec. 10      Finally Seeing What Has Been True All Along
Dec. 17      The Good News of the Metanoia Man
Dec. 24      Morning Worship, Lessons and Carols
                 Evening Worship, You Do Not Have to Be Afraid Anymore
