SERVICE OF WORSHIP

November 27, 2016 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

From the earliest days of the church this First Sunday of Advent was like New Years Day. On the church's worship calendar, we begin again the journey that takes us from Advent, through Christmas, to remember Jesus' baptism and ministry, the painful final week and crucifixion. When it seemed that the journey had come to an end, Easter brings new life. There is Pentecost as the Spirit of God breathes life into the church, and there is the long walk of striving to be the church in God's world. So Advent begins with this question: what do we expect from the journey?

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude Wir Schon Leuchtet der Morgenstern (How Brightly Beams the Morning Star), BuxWV 223
by Dieterich Buxtehude

Call to Worship

Rev. Zach Walker

The angels say it all the time:

“Do not be afraid.”

We say it every week:

“The Word of our God shall stand forever.”

The promise of God is sturdy and strong.

It holds us together when the world is falling apart.

It is our help in ages past.

It is our hope for years to come.

Therefore, with trust and confidence,

with patience and courage,

we are waiting for the Lord.

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of November 28, 2016)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Jenny McDevitt and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, Nov. 28

Isaiah 1:10-20

Isaiah shows up time and time again during Advent. His words are the source of some of our deepest comfort and most hopeful dreams. These words, however, are harsh. He has a difficult message to convey, and he knows the people will resist. As we begin Advent this year, consider this: what in your life or your community might cause the prophets to speak sternly in your presence? In this season of preparation, how might you use that insight to make ready the way for the Christ child?

Tuesday, Nov. 29

Isaiah 1:21-31

Isaiah's rough message continues. We must always remember, however, that the Word of God always springs from love. God wishes for us to change our ways because God loves us and wants all good things for us. We must also remember, though, that we are not God. If this sort of language is hard to receive, how might that inform the way you communicate with others when hard conversations occur?

Wednesday, Nov. 30

Isaiah 2:1-4

The first words of hope begin to spring forth from the prophet. "They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks." In other words, we'll understand that someday, we'll feed each other, rather than fight each other, and we'll heal each other, rather than hurt each other. How might you contribute to this holy vision today?

Thursday, Dec. 1

Isaiah 2:5-22

How quickly comfort turns back to challenge. It's a bit wearying to read day after day, isn't it? If we are being honest, it's a bit wearying to live this way day after day, too. How quickly we place our trust and our value in idols. (And please note: idols can be status, reputation, and achievements just as easily as they can be golden calves.) What idols call to you and ask you to bow down to them? Don't be ashamed — we all have them. The important thing is that we don't give into them. Today, pray for God to give you strength.

Friday, Dec. 2

Isaiah 3:1-4:1

Are you still reading? Good. Has the Isaiah grabbed your attention yet? Good. The prophet has to shout loudly because there are so many competing voices in this world. Yet this passage concludes: "Take away our disgrace." The prophet's job is to point toward God's promised day. It is surely coming. This lament is not an academic exercise, or just a drill. God's lament is real. It must be, for God's promise is real, too. Today, pray for God to help you trust that promise.

Saturday, Dec. 3

Isaiah 4:2-6

Speaking of God's promised day... "On that day the branch of the Lord shall be beautiful and glorious," and there will both shade and shelter. While Isaiah urges us to change our worst ways, he also reminds us of the respite God can provide when life lashes out at us. What challenges will you face this month? Today, pray for God to bring you healing and hope.

GOD IN THE ARTS: HAMILTON AND RENT - Hamilton is a story of our founding fathers told in an urban musical style with the entire cast being of mixed race and ethnic diversity. Len Carrell will look at each of these shows and the theological marks they have left on our world. 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 14 & 21, in Room 126.

MISSION

THE FOOD PANTRY – During the month of December, the Food Pantry is asking for canned meals: ravioli, spaghetti, canned salmon and chicken (there is an abundance of tuna already), tamales, etc. The Clothes Closet is accepting SMALL Christmas decorations. Used Christmas trees cannot be accepted because of lack of display space, but lights and ornaments are always appreciated by the clients. They love finding "that treasure" that will brighten up their home for the holidays.

O CHRISTMAS TREE...O CHRISTMAS TREE - A Village tradition, our Hat and Mitten Trees return for the holiday season. From Dec. 2-25, come decorate our Christmas trees with hats and mittens to give to families served by the Village Clothes Closet/Food Pantry. You will find the trees located at the south entrance to the church and in the Welcome Center. The Pantry serves 500 households a month and your contribution will literally help spread the warmth of the season to many of these families. # ADVENT SERMON SERIES

What Are You Waiting For?

The Advent season is a season of waiting. We will wait in lines and we will wait in traffic. That's part of the season. But the spiritual waiting that we do is different. The waiting we do as people of faith is determined by our hope. And waiting in line is passive, but Christian waiting is active. It takes all you have. So, what are you waiting for? For what do you hope?
