SERVICE OF WORSHIP

December 4, 2016 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Today we gather around the light of the second candle of Advent—the candle of peace. In an angry world, where so many feel powerless and afraid, peace can seem an impossible dream. But in fact, peace is not a dream or even a concept; peace is a work. Peace is a disciplined, careful work, which begins with small steps.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

Fuga in g minor
by J. A. Reincken

Call to Worship

Rev. Hallie Hottle

Where crooked roads need straightening,

prepare the way of the Lord.

Where people walk in darkness,

prepare the way of the Lord.

Where busy lives need stilling,

prepare the way of the Lord.

Where conflict longs for reconciling,

prepare the way of the Lord.

Where prophets' voices need to be heard,

prepare the way of the Lord.

To all of the earth and to all of your people,

O come, O come, Emmanuel.

Lighting of the Advent Candle

Christine and Ford Maurer (8 a.m.)

Judy and Ian Wiseman (9:30 a.m.)

Gadine Acton and Sharolyn Molle (11 a.m.)

We light candles this Advent.
Candles of joy despite all the sadness.
Candles of hope where despair keeps watch.
Candles of courage where fear is ever present.
Candles of peace for tempest-tossed days.
Candles of grace to ease heavy burdens.
Candles of love to inspire our living.
O Lord, may these candles burn all the year long. Amen.

*Hymn, No. 132

Good Christian Friends, Rejoice
IN DULCI JUBILO

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,
Be patient with us,
for our vision is not as strong as the prophets'
You promise that swords will be beaten into plowshares,
but we see little peace.
You promise that even the trees will clap their hands,
but we see little joy.
You promise that the lion will lie down with the lamb,
but we see little hope.
In a world filled with big, complex problems,
we look for big, complex answers.
We forget that you are the one who comes as a baby,
laid in a manger,
salvation wrapped up in swaddling cloth,
nothing special,
and yet everything we need. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

Gloria in excelsis Deo!

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of December 5, 2016)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Hallie Hottle and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, Dec. 5

1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

In this season Paul reminds us again and again to stay alert. It doesn't mean we should drink more coffee. There are things we must do in the waiting. Encourage one another. Build each other up. Be Church, to each other. Who can you encourage this week?

Tuesday, Dec. 5

1 Thessalonians 5:12-28

Here, at the end of Paul's letter to the Thessalonians, we hear some instruction for living in the season of anticipation. Our waiting isn't empty. There is much to do. God is coming. Do you believe it?

Wednesday, Dec. 7

Isaiah 6:1-13

We jump over to Isaiah, to hear the prophet's call story. Here is where we get the musical line, "Here I am, Lord. Send me." And here is the line I cannot hear in any voice other than Dr. King's, "How long, O Lord?" This season we're asked to respond in both ways, to stand and lift our heads to the calling of a new thing, and to beg in deep faith, how long, O Lord, until you come again?

Thursday, Dec. 8

God appeared in a manger once, and I'm certain God continues to appear in places we don't expect. This Advent, I'm finding the Holy in a poem written by Ann Weems. The poem entitled "The Coming Of God," is broken up for the next three days. I hope it can help you watch for God in the waiting too. Ask yourself after each reading, where have I seen God today?

*Our God is the One who comes to us in a burning bush, in an angel's song, in a new born child.
Our God is the One who cannot be found locked in the church, not even in the sanctuary.*

Friday, Dec. 9

*Our God will be where God will be
with no constraints, no predictability.
Our God lives where our God lives,
and destruction has no power
and even death cannot stop the living.
Our God will be born where God will be born,
but there is no place to look for the One who comes to us.*

Saturday, Dec. 10

*When God is ready, God will come even to a godforsaken place
like a stable in Bethlehem.
Watch... for you know not when God comes.
Watch, that you might be found whenever, wherever, God comes.*

ADULT EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY

Upcoming Village U classes:

THE KINGS VS. THE SHEPHERDS - The gospels of Matthew and Luke tell different stories about the birth of Jesus. The wise men only appear in Matthew and the shepherds only appear in Luke. Why is that? In these three sessions, Dr. Rodger Nishioka will examine both the familiar and perhaps the unfamiliar components of these two stories. 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 7-21. Room 127.

GOD IN THE ARTS: HAMILTON AND RENT - Hamilton is a story of our founding fathers told in a urban musical style with the entire cast being of mixed race and ethnic diversity. Before Hamilton another show, Rent, took the nation by storm twenty years earlier. Both address the challenges and the terrors of their time. Rev. Len Carrell will look at each of these shows and the theological marks they have left on our world. 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesdays, Dec. 14 & 21. Room 126.

ADULT SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES meet at 9:30 and 10:45 a.m. Check villagepres.org for more details.
9:30 A.M.

NAMES OF THE MESSIAH - In the combined Sunday morning Village Forum and Foundations of Faith classes, Dr. Rodger Nishioka continues the study of Isaiah 9:6 where the prophet lists four names for the Messiah. Today, we explore what it means that the Messiah is “The Mighty God.” Next Sunday, Dec. 11, we will explore the name of “Everlasting Father” and finally, on Dec. 18, we will study the name of “Prince of Peace.” All are welcome in Rooms 126-127.

10:45 A.M.

INQUIRERS - The class is reading and discussing the late Marcus Borg's thought-provoking and inspirational book, Convictions. Borg, one of the world's pre-eminent scholars of the Historical Jesus, concludes his long career with a heart-felt examination and recitation of "How I Learned What Matters Most." Join the book review and discussion of Borg's memories, conversions, and convictions in the Inquirers class. Be a part of the effort to study and celebrate "what matters most" to those who seek to better understand and follow Jesus. Led by Don Wilson in Room 124.

ADVENT SERMON SERIES

What Are You Waiting For?

The Advent season is a season of waiting. We will wait in lines and we will wait in traffic. That's part of the season. But the spiritual waiting that we do is different. The waiting we do as people of faith is determined by our hope. And waiting in line is passive, but Christian waiting is active. It takes all you have. So, what are you waiting for? For what do you hope?

Nov. 27	What Are You Waiting For?
Dec. 4	It Is the Little Things that Matter
Dec. 11	A God Who Knows Your Name
Dec. 18	A God Who Knows Their Name
