

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

December 18, 2016 • 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

ABOUT TODAY'S SERVICE

Mary sings because God's Angel calls her by name. God fashioned 300 sextillion stars, but still God finds her. That is why Mary sings. But she immediately understands what the significance of this love means. God not only knows Mary. God loves Mary and God calls everyone by name.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Prelude

O Come, O Come Emmanuel
arr. Jon Schmidt; Jenny Hull, cello (8 a.m.)

I Wonder as I Wander
music: John Jacob Niles; Rachel Priest, soprano (9:30, 11 a.m.)

Call to Worship

Rev. Zach Walker

Every day, and especially this day, love is what brings us together:

God's love, for each of us and for all of us.

Love is patient, love is kind;
love bears all things and believes all things.

Love is expansive and inclusive;
love seeks us and saves us.

Love is why the angels sing, the star shines, and the shepherds travel.

Love is why the kings tremble, the animals bow down, and the baby cries.

Christmas comes because love has always been here.

Let us worship the God of such miraculous love!

Advent Prayer

adapted from words by Howard Thurman

We light candles this Advent.
Candles of joy despite all the sadness.
Candles of hope where despair keeps watch.
Candles of courage where fear is ever present.
Candles of peace for tempest-tossed days.
Candles of grace to ease heavy burdens.
Candles of love to inspire our living.
O Lord, may these candles burn all the year long. Amen.

*Hymn, No. 143

Angels, from the Realms of Glory
REGENT SQUARE

*Prayer of Confession

Merciful God,
When it comes to love,
 you have never held back from us.
We confess that we sometimes find this embarrassing;
 for we have been taught to ration our resources,
 save for a rainy day,
 and certainly never wear our hearts on our sleeves,
 where they could be wounded.
And yet that has never been your way.
You have turned heaven and earth upside down to show us what limitless love looks like.
Take away our fears, O God, that we might be willing to do the same. (Silent prayer)

*Assurance of God's Grace

*Response

Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Gloria in excelsis Deo!

*Passing of the Peace

THE CHURCH'S BOOK (Week of December 19, 2016)

The following daily Bible readings were written by Rev. Tom Are, Jr. and are an offering for your own personal devotion. You are invited to read the text, think about the reflection and questions and allow these to lead you in a time of prayer. Pray for your own journey of faith. Pray for Village Church and our mission. Pray for God's world.

Monday, Dec. 19

John 3:16-21

God loves the world. There is no end to the love of God for God's creation. The whole of the gospel begins there. There is a mystery to Christmas. The mystery is not just how was this child born, but why? The response to this greater mystery is God's holy love for you and for the world.

Tuesday, Dec. 20

Isaiah 11:1-9

The scriptures are filled with holy dreams of God's future, none more beautiful than this passage from Isaiah. In a vision of life completely restored, Isaiah affirms that in the end God is still God. With the birth of the Prince of Peace, such holy imaginings inspire God's people anew. Read this passage again. How might these words influence your day today?

Wednesday, Dec. 21

Luke 1:26-38

Let it be with me according to your word. We should not overlook Mary's faithful response. God works through God's faithful children. Each day is a renewed opportunity to say, "Let it be with me according to your word."

Thursday, Dec. 22

Luke 1:39-56

Mary sings a song of a new world. She knows that her child will bring a new order, a new life to the world. Read it carefully and recognize that Jesus comes to bring justice and peace to the earth. Like Mary, we also sing the deepest promises and dreams of our faith. . .from Joy to the World to Silent Night to O, Come all Ye Faithful, we sing our confidence that Christ redeems the world.

Friday, Dec. 23

Luke 2:1-20

The child is born. There is so much joy in heaven that it spills over into a shepherd's field, and they learn of God's undying love for the world. These words have been spoken to every generation for centuries, but they are also words that speak God's truth for you: to you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, the Messiah, the Lord.

Saturday, Dec. 24

Philippians 2:5-11

For centuries Christians have read this passage at Christmas time because it speaks of how Christ emptied himself for us. From the glories of heaven he descends to take the form of a simple person that we might know what it means to be human, and that we might know, someday, what it means to live in glory. In time, every tongue will confess. Today, let this good news be on your tongue.

NEXT SERMON SERIES

Starting Sunday, Jan. 1

I Know That's What it Says, But That's Not What it Means!

The Bible is a complicated book, written over hundreds of years in various contexts and diverse circumstances. And then, it is read over 2,000 years later in a world and culture the biblical writers could not have imagined. Given all of that, it's easy to misunderstand the Bible. When it is misunderstood the good news can often sound like bad news for some folks. When it is misunderstood, it can often make the Bible more difficult to trust. In this sermon series, we will take just a few passages that have often been confusing and see if there is a life-giving word for us.

Your ornament is waiting for you!

For those who have not received the ceramic Christmas ornament, we still have a limited quantity available. You may stop by the reception desk at the South entrance to pick one up today or you can schedule a pick-up by calling Molly Sirridge, 913-671-2325. The custom ornament has a picture of the newly renovated chancel and pipe organ.

Thank you for all you do to support Village Church!

ADVENT SERMON SERIES

What Are You Waiting For?

The Advent season is a season of waiting. We will wait in lines and we will wait in traffic. That's part of the season. But the spiritual waiting that we do is different. The waiting we do as people of faith is determined by our hope. And waiting in line is passive, but Christian waiting is active. It takes all you have. So, what are you waiting for? For what do you hope?

Dec. 4	It Is the Little Things that Matter
